ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Richard Wright projected the most revolutionary and defining act of writing about black people and his works were credited for the complexity and originality in the African American literature from the historical and cultural contexts. The present study “A STUDY OF HUMAN PREDICAMENTS IN THE SELECT NOVELS OF RICHARD WRIGHT” is based on his four novels and two short story collections. It focuses on the period of slavery days till Richard Wright’s arrival. The study traces on the social maladies of alienation, identity crisis, oppressions and exploitations gone through by the blacks in America.

With deep sense of gratitude I thank Dr. C. Kannammal, Ph.D. Associate Professor, Department of English, JKK Nattraja College of Arts & Science, Komarapalayam, for her encouragement and guidance. She was not only a guide but also my mentor who supported me at every stage of my research work. I owe my indebtedness to her.

I record my heartiest debt of thankfulness to our beloved Chairman, Smt.N.Sendamarai for giving me the opportunity to undertake this study successfully.
