LIST OF CONTENTS

Preface i-iv

List of Tables ix

List of Graphs ix

List of Maps x

1 Topic of the Study, its Rationale and Execution 1-26

1.1 Introduction 1

1.2 Statement of the Problem 3

1.3 Hypothesis/Objectives of the Study 19

1.4 Conceptual Framework 24

2.1 Production of Specialized Knowledge on Children 27

2.2 Duty vs. Rights: Dominant Discourses on Children.

i Obligation-Based Approaches 38

ii Desirability of Conferring Rights to Minors 44

iii Impact of Children’s Rights on Women’s Claim to Rights 52

iv Rights as a Means to Extract Equal Opportunities from the State. 59

v Cultural Relativism vs. Universal Human Rights Standards. 65
3 Child Welfare in India: A Human Rights Audit of State Intervention and Voluntary Action

3.1 Epistemological Aspects

3.2 Status of Children in Family Law
   i Consideration of Personal Laws
   ii Right of Guardianship iii Choice of the Minor iv Attitude towards Children’s Property

3.3 Protection of Children Through Criminal Law

3.4 Impact of Directive Principles on Children

3.5 Phenomenon of Child Labour

3.6 Protection of Children’s Interests the Voluntary Action

4 Status and Perception of Children’s Rights in India’s Least Literate District: Analysis of Empirical Data

4.1 Statistical Representation of Child’s Misery

4.2 Ecological Perspective of Household Existence and the Child
   i People of Jhabua: Hardworking Subaltern Groups
   ii Ecological Crisis: Nature vs. Man
   iii Bureaucratic Response to Human Misery
4.3 Social Worth of the Child in Jhabua
   i Sampling Framework 187
   ii Sample Children 199
   iii Value of Pre-Natal Life in Jhabua 201
   iv Infant Care in Jhabua 207 v Early Childhood in Jhabua 213
   vi Late Childhood in Jhabua 216
   vii Adolescence in the Jhabua District 222

   5.1 Observations on the Practice of Child Welfare
      i Access-Deficits 233
      ii The Dynamics of Policy Failure 239
      iii Inadequacies of Policy Perceptions and Pathology of Interaction between the System and Sub-Systems 242
      iv Institutional Malaise and the Lack of Conceptual Clarity 250
   5.2 Perceptions of Rights Deprivations for Children
      i Empathy for children 262
      ii Deprivation Consciousness on child 266 welfare

iii Promotion and protection of children’s rights through discursive communication

5.3 Sociology and the Issue of the Rights of the Child

Appendix 274-307

Bibliography 308-343
List of Tables

3.1 Ranking of Charges Against Juveniles (Descending Order): India. 111
4.1 Child Mortality in India and the Jhabua District. 171
4.2 Labour-Participation of Children in the Jhabua District. 172
4.3 Juveniles Apprehended in 1997 in India and the Jhabua District. 173
4.4 Indicators of the three Sample Villages 188
4.5 Social Profile of the Sample Households 189
4.6 Landholding Structure of the Sample Tribal Households 190
4.7 Access to Education and Health Infrastructure in Sample Villages. 192
4.8 Migration of Population in Sample Villages 192
4.9 Salient Features of the Household Samples. 198
4.10 Results of Class VIII (Jhabua District: 1998) 219
5.1 Human Resource Worth of the Jhabua District (1991) 265

List of Graphs

4.1 Probable Mortality per Thousand Live Births in India and the Jhabua District. 168
4.2 Age Structure and Illiteracy in the Jhabua District in 1991 169
4.3 Main Activity of the Children (5-14 Years) of 170
the Jhabua District in 1991

List of Maps

4.1 Jhabua District: Sample Villages 194
4.2 Location of the Sample Households: Village: Para 195
4.3 Location of the Sample Household: Village: Borkuwa 196
4.4 Location of the Sample Household: Village: Chhayanpada 197