ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Ramesh C. Sharma, D.Sc., Head, Department of Environmental Sciences, H.N.B. Garhwal University, Srinagar-Garhwal for suggesting me the research problem, designing systematic procedure for experiments, planning the study and supervising each chapter of the thesis with patience by giving critical thoughts for its presentation and discussion.

It is my privilege to explore my heart felt thanks and gratitude to Dr. R.K. Jauhari, Dept. of Zoology, D.A.V.(P.G.) College, Dehradun who not only guided me through each and every step of the thesis but also introduced me to the field of Environmental Microbiology.

I am highly indebted to the Head of the Zoology Department, D.A.V. (P.G.) College, Dehradun for his unstained encouragements and many useful suggestions. I am thankful to the Principal, D.A.V. (P.G.) College, Dehradun for providing necessary facilities for carrying out present investigation.

I owe sincere thanks to Dr. V.P. Sharma, Ex-Director, Malaria Research Centre, Delhi and Dr. P.K. Das, Director VCRC, Pondicherry, for providing valuable publications. I am very much benefited by the discussion I had with Dr. V.K. Dua, Deputy Director, Malaria Research Centre, Field station, Haridwar. Thanks are also due to Mr. S.P. Sethi of the same institute for his prudent and immaculate suggestions in entomological investigations.

My grateful appreciation goes to the Director, Forest Research Institute, Officer-in-charge, Zoological Survey of India, Library-in-charge, Wild Life Institute of India, Dehradun and the Director, C.D.R.I., Lucknow for their full co-operation in providing me the necessary documentation as and when required.
My cordial thanks are due to Dr. R.K. Mahesh, Dept. of Zoology, D.A.V. (P.G.) College, Dehradun for his help in compiling the data and for co-operation during the field work.

Acknowledgements are also due to Dr. N. Pemola Devi, SRF for constant encouragement and to Mr. Balbir Singh of the same department for collecting mosquito specimens.

Last, but not the least I am deeply indebted to my respected parents (my father - Dr. N.K. Sinha, Ex-Director, Delhi Zoo and my mother Ms. Param Sinha, Uttarakhand Health Directorate) for their constant co-operation and inspiration that enabled me to bring my efforts to such a purposeful conclusion.
