ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This is an arduous work which I could not complete without the help of my colleague and friends.

First of all I would acknowledge my research guide Dr. K.V. Reddy who inspired and gave me his precious guidance for my research work.

I thank to Dr. R.K. Patil, principal of Shri Narayanrao Chavan Law College, Nanded who allowed me to this research work and also made available the required data, books, journals, and other materials. I give my thanks to Shri M.N. Borse, librarian of Shri Narayanrao Chavan Law College, Nanded who permitted me to use library computers, software, books, journals, news papers whenever I needed.

I convey my thanks to my colleagues Dr. A.N. Kirkan, Dr. S.L. Hassekar, Dr. M.B. Ali, Prof. N.U. Kalbande, Prof. Mrs. S.S. Aagse, Prof. Mrs. V.V. Patil, and Prof. Miss P.V. Bandewar who supported and always helped me to such difficult task.

I am very thankful to Dr. V.M. More, principle, Shri Shivaji Law College, Parbhani, and also the Dean, Faculty of Law, Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded and Dr. P.D. Joshi, principal, Shri Shivaji Law College, Kandhar for their kind help and guidance.

I owe a lot to Adv. Dr. R.N. Khandil, who is my guide for my life and always showed me the right path whenever I am in difficulty. He always forced me to do this research work and guided in the research and made available his personal library, computer, for my research work.

I am thankful to my friends Adv. Manish Khandil (Sharma), and Adv. Anil Patil for their kind support. I am thankful to Shri Rajesh Kapale who made me computer literate and due to him today I can use computer.

This Ph.D. thesis will be quite difficult without the support of my family members. I owe for this to my father Shri Shivshankar Virbhadra Khakare, brother Vinod, my sisters in law Sandhya, Smita, my wife Anuradha, and all the kids Utkarsh, Shrushti, Rutuja, Hiral, Keyur, Prathomesh, and Sumedh.