Contents

Acknowledgments 2

1. Introduction 3-48

2. The Making of Tribes: The Chang and Chakhesang Nagas 49-79

3. ‘Rebel Accounting’, the ‘Underground Effect’, and the ‘Underground as Vocation’ 80-123

4. The Moral Economy of State Resources in Nagaland 124-181

5. The state as a Resource and the Quest for Frontier Nagaland 182-218

7. Polythethic Democracy: Tribal Elections, Bogus Votes, and the Political Imagination. 242-282

8. What makes a Good Politician? Political Representation,
   Vote-buying, and the MLA’s Handbook 283-313

9. Conclusion 314-325

References 326-358