CONTENTS

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION: PAGE 1-18

T.S. ELIOT'S LIFE AND BACKGROUND:

A. Early life from 1888 to 1909.

B. Life and movements leading to his stoop into the world of minor poetry from 1910 to 1917.

C. Years of success in failure: Period 1918 to 1926 in Eliot’s life.

D. Eliot’s literary and religious conversion (1926-1929)

E. Life of literary developments from 1930 to 1965.

CHAPTER II: ELIOT’S THEORY OF POETRY PAGE 19-64

AND ROLE OF AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL ELEMENT IN ITS PRACTICE: POEM-WISE ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL THEME IN HIS EARLY POETRY:

A. “Love songs of J. Alfred Prufrock”.

B. “Prufrock”.

C. “Portrait of Lady”.

D. “Aerial Poems”.

CHAPTER III: ELIOT AND WASTE LAND: PAGE 65-110

A. Meaning as a personal paradox in the texture of the Waste.

B. Viviene, Eliot and the Waste.

C. Symbolism and the Waste. A concealed entity of personal ‘sound and fury’ in poetry.

D. Waste and infantile-sexuality: Happenings beneath Eliot’s failure in marriage and sex.

CHAPTER IV: ELIOT THE MAN AND THE POET: PAGE 111-121

POETRY AS ART AND PRACTICE:

A. His concept of woman, love, marriage, and sex reflected in.

   I. The Waste Land

   II. “Hollow Man”.

   III. “Gerontion”
IV. “Sweaney Agonistes”.

B. Eliot’s and his Anglo-Catholic views in poetry between 1926 to 1930.

C. Eliot’s change of profession from poetry to drama and its impacts of 20th Century literature.

CHAPTER V: ELIOT AND HIS LATER POETRY: PAGE 122-157

A DETAILED SURVEY OF PHILOSOPHIC AND PESSIMISTIC CAREER:

A. Eliot, Philosophy and philosophic poetry.

C. Four Quartets: A study in Eliot ancestral past and philosophic present.

D. Eliot and impressionistic poetry: Four Quartets.

E. Eliot as a pessimist.

CHAPTER VI: CONCLUSION: PAGE 158-165

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY