This thesis is the consequence of a few years’ effort and it would not have been possible without the kind support and help of many individuals. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all of them.

I am highly indebted to my research guide, Dr. V Raman Nair, Group Director, SCMS Cochin School of Business, for his guidance, constant supervision as well as for providing necessary information regarding the study. Without my research guide’s help and support completing the thesis would not have been possible.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Radha Thevanoor and Dr. Indu Nair for their encouragement, advice, support, availability and patience during the research period. My colleagues at SCMS Cochin School of Business are always remembered for their probing questions and patient listening providing me with a clear direction that helped me a lot to undertake the various phases of research with great confidence. Once again, thanking them for allowing me to grow academically, for providing me with their wisdom and your continuous support along the way.

SCMS School of Technology and Management (SSTM), where I signed up as a research scholar, has provided me with the institutional support that I needed to progress. The six-month course work period I had with SSTM, was very useful. My heartfelt gratitude to all at SSTM for their timely help which was inevitable for this research to get completed.

I extend my gratitude to Dr. Hareesh N. Ramanathan, Professor and Head at Toc H Institute of Science and Technology, who helped me to set high standards for my work, especially in statistical analysis. I am obliged to Dr. Hareesh N. Ramanathan for spending quality time in helping me progress through the analysis part.

My family is always a constant source of inspiration. Its commitment to my education and support for life has had me prosper and develop into the individual that I am, today. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my mother, and father, my mother-in law and father-in-law, my dearest husband and our son, for all of the sacrifices that they made on my behalf. Their prayer for me was what sustained me thus far. My brothers and sisters-in-law are also thought of this moment for all the support rendered to me in my journey of research.

Above all, I bow my head before the Almighty, without whose invisible hands above my head, I am nothing. This research work shows the countless blessings that have been showered upon me by Lord Shiva.
