Acknowledgement

I wish to appreciate the contribution and support which various agencies and individuals have provided for the successful completion of this research work. It may not be possible to mention all by name but the following were singled out for exceptional help.

First, it is with immense pleasure that I acknowledge my gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Minati Panda, for her scholastic guidance, sagacious suggestions and patience through out this study. Her assistance and direction bestowed upon me goes beyond her formal obligations as a supervisor.

I would also like to thank the Dean, School of Social Sciences, JNU for enabling me in field work and assisting me administratively in order to complete this study in record time.

I would also like to acknowledge the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) and the Kenyan Government for providing me with the scholarship without which this work would not have been possible. I also thank the Ministry of Education Science and Technology for granting me study leave from my normal duties and assisting me in many other ways in order to enable me to carry out this study with reasonable ease.

I wish to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to Mr. David Ongarora, Mr. Felix Kjoli and Mr.
Joseph Murimi who proof-read this work and gave suggestions to improve the thesis. I also thank Ms.
for her assistance in data analysis.

This acknowledgement would not be complete without mentioning Prof. Mohanty, A. K., Prof. Khadria, B., Prof. Depak, K., Prof. Geetha, N., Prof. Karuna, C., Dr. Raina, D., Dr. Rao, S.
for their support and encouragement during my study period. My sincere thanks to Ms Sneha and the ZHQES office for helping me in various ways.

The moral support given by the following individuals, Dr. Agaya B., Dr. Ombuki, C., Dr. Njenga, J., Dr. Chiputa, E., Zanzini, N., Bendangsha, Sree, Venkat, Selvi, Summanth, Mrs. Gaita, and all my batch mates made my stay in India pleasant.

Special thanks to Mrs. V. Mburu for her continuous encouragement, support and prayers through out my stay in India.

Above all, I thank the almighty God for He has done Marvels for me and I cannot tell it all. Glory to Him, may His name be praised for ever.

Felicita W. Njoguna.
