ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My most profound gratitude to Prof. K.G. Vijayakrishnan, for his valuable supervision, scholarly ideas and unswerving inspiration. I feel extremely fortunate to have being guided by him- a person with amicable nature, optimistic disposition and above all, a genius in phonology. For never bothering me with strict deadlines, for not making me write too many drafts; for believing in me even in times when I went cold footed; for his inexhaustible patience and above all for his consistent guidance throughout, I could not thank him enough. I could not have imagined a better mentor for my Ph.D. study.

I would like to express my gratefulness to Dr. Temsunungsang for his insightful remarks and valuable suggestions which stimulated me to look at things from different perspectives. And especially, for guiding me all the way from Shillong.

Special thanks to Dr. Hemanga Dutta, for instilling in me an interest in phonology with his remarkable lectures, for all the good words, the constant encouragement and never - failing advices.

Prof. Hemalatha Nagarajan, Prof. P. Madhavan, and Dr. Shruti Sircar have been kind enough to extend their help at various phases of my academic life. I remember them with indepth gratitude.

I would like to express my thanks to Dr. Meena Debashish for letting me attend her Praat classes and Dr. Salivendra Jayaraju for permitting me to use Phonetics lab. I thank Mr. Dayakar and Mr. Raju of Phonetics lab for helping me with the lab recordings and lending me the recorders.

I acknowledge the UGC-JRF & SRF fellowship I received which helped me survive five long years on campus.

I am grateful to all my informants for their cooperation and extreme patience during the recordings. Special thanks to Bempi for sitting with me during the innumerable recording sessions and introducing me to Themmie. Thanks to Themmie for providing me with enough informants at Manipur. Without them this work would not have been possible.
I would also like to thank Tp, Gloria and Bp for never complaining and always being available whenever I called for the Mizo data.

I also place on record my heartfelt gratitude to Mona’s Papa for taking good care of us while we were at Manipur and for showing us around the beautiful city of Imphal.

Special thanks to L. Binod Kumari, Librarian, Tribal Research Institute, Manipur, for permitting us use the library and helping us find the relevant resources. I am also grateful to Ajith Dhar, Rtd. Deputy Director, Tribal Development Department, Manipur, for providing me with materials on Thadou.

I would like to thank one and all at the Phonetics and Phonology Lab, IIT Guwahati. My special gratitude towards Dr. Priyankoo Sarmah for sparing time for me even when he was on personal leave. I am very much indebted to the wonderful bunch of friends at IITG - Luke, Wendy, Leena, Amlesh and Prarthana for their remarkable assistance while at Guwahati.

I place on record my thanks to all EFLU teaching and non-teaching staff for their kind cooperation. Special thanks to our school office staff- Lizzy, Sandhya and Sujana for all their assistance and cooperation throughout.

I would like to thank my friends- Deepak, Jyoti, Upendar, Loreina, Venkanna, and Priyanka, to name a few… for all the fun we’ve had and for good heartedly bearing with my moments of madness. Thanks to Neilam for introducing me to Thadou. I also thank all my batch mates, seniors and juniors who made my life here easy.

I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to Swetha and Pradeep chettan for being with me through thick and thin; for accompanying me all the way to Manipur; for the constant encouragement; for making me do and achieve things I never dreamt of doing and for everything that you are doing and would continue to do throughout… Special thanks to Swetha for proof reading my entire thesis and making it look agreeable.

Last but not least I would like to thank Ammuna and Inu, my beloved niece and nephew, for their overwhelming cuteness, unconditional love and above all for keeping me alive.
