CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that the thesis entitled "Genetic divergence and impact of seed size variation in durum wheat" being submitted to Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut (UP) for the award of the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Agricultural Botany is a record of the bona-fide research work carried out by Mr. Rajesh Kumar Sharma under my guidance and supervision and that no part of this thesis has been submitted for any other degree or diploma. He has completed required attendance for the award of Ph.D. degree.

The assistance and help received during the course of investigation has been duly acknowledged.
