

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By the grace of almighty I have tried to put all my humble efforts to fulfill the task assigned to me. It gives me an immense pleasure to acknowledge affectionate encouragement and meaningful suggestions by several persons.

I wish to place my profound gratitude to my learned supervisor Dr. Tejbir Singh, Head, Department of Agricultural Botany, Kisan (P.G.) College, Simbhaoli (Ghaziabad) for his transcendent suggestions, painstaking help and constructive criticism to establish the study.

I am indebted to Dr. V.K. Chauhan Principal, Kisan (P.G.) College, Simbhaoli, Ghaziabad (U.P.) for providing me all the necessary facilities and kind help during the course of this work.

I take this opportunity to express my special thanks to Dr. Sanjay Malik, Dr. S.P.S. Sirohi and Dr. S.D. Tyagi Faculty Members, Department of Agricultural Botany, Kisan (P.G.) College, Simbhaoli, (Ghaziabad) for their help and valuable suggestions.

There is a dearth of words in the vocabulary of this world to express my gratitude and regards to my parents, a constant source of inspiration towards my aspiration of better academic career.

At the last but not least but not least I thank to my respected Brother and Sister and lovely children's Ragav and Mehak for their continued encouragement without which this would not have come true.

Special thanks to my elder brother Dr. Rakesh Kumar for their kind and valuable support during my entire work.

I extend my thanks to Amitesh Sharma, Jasmeet, Jagmohan and Sanjay who helped me in more than one ways during the course of this study.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. S.R. Kushwaha Technical Officer, Division of Plant Physiology, IARI, New Delhi for helping me in the statistical analysis.

I also express sincere thanks to Miss. Sarika Bansal, M/s Snaarria Computers 10-Aditya Palace, Tej Garhi, Meerut for providing the best typing facilities which made me possible to achieve this ambitious goal.

Though many have not been mentioned but none are forgotten.
