ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study has been possible because of the impetus contribution and relentless help and support of several people. Writing an acknowledgement is probably the most difficult task as a thesis is an outcome of direct and indirect support of many. Yet, I would be failing in my duty if I do not mention the names of at least a few of the many individuals and institutions without whose support this work would have remained incomplete.

First of all, I would like to profusely thank with gratitude my guide Dr. Devaraj M. Director (Rtd.), Institute of Development Studies, Manasagangothri, Mysuru. He guided, discussed and suggested each and every time despite his busy schedule and commitments. His relentless guidance, scholarly advice and continuous follow up played a key role in the direction and formulation of this thesis.

I am grateful to University of Mysore for permitting me to take up my research in this prestigious university.

I sincerely thank Prof. B. K. Tulasimala Professor and Director, Institute of Development Studies. Her moral support and encouragement and helpful suggestions helped me a lot to enhance the quality of this research work.

I thank all the members of the Doctoral committee, Prof. M N Chandrashekhar, Chairman, BoS, Dr H M Chandrashekhar, Dr. M. Meera for their constant encouragement and support.

I owe my regards to Dr. H.S. Kumar, IDS, Dr. Krishnegowda, Director (Rtd.) IDS, Dr. K.V. Aiyanna, Director (Rtd.) IDS, for their help. My thanks are due to Mr. Sathyendra Kumar and Mr.K.T.Sandeep.

I am grateful to Smt Renuka Chidambaram, I.A.S., Principal Secretary to Government, Department of Planning Programme Monitoring and Statistics, Smt Uma Mahadevan, I.A.S., Principal Secretary to Government, Department of Women and Child Development and Empowerment of Senior Citizens and Differently Abled Persons, Sri Chakravarthy Mohan, I.A.S., Secretary to Government, Department of Planning Programme Monitoring and Statistics, Sri K V Subramanyam, Director, Directorate of Economics and Statistics for encouraging me to carry out research study.

Of the many institutions which offered me invaluable help by allowing me to study and use their publications, I have been immensely benefited by referring to the publications of National Bank for Rural Development (NABARD), the Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Zilla Panchayath, Mandya and I would like to thank them all. In addition to the ones mentioned there are many other institutions and authors whose work has enlightened me and they have been cited in this book to make it richer in content. I am grateful to them and would like to thank them all.

I would like to express my thanks to District Statistical Officer and the Staff of Mandya District and Mysore District, all the Officers and Officials of Mandya Zilla Panchayath, Taluk Panchayaths of Mandya, Malavalli and Pandavapura.

I am very much thankful to all the officers and officials. Who helped me in field study and all officers and officials of Lead District Bank, MDCC Bank and NABARD Regional Branch, Mandya District.

I fail in my duty if I do not express my heartfelt thanks to my mother C.H. Pushpavathi whose support and motivation all through sculpted my educational Career. I remember with deep gratitude my parents-in-law Late K.C. Shankarappa Gowda and Late K.N. Janakamma who were a great strength in my life. I am grateful to my sister-in-law Smt K.S Sreelekha and brother Sri N.R Rathnakara for their support.

I also thank my sister Smt. C.H. Jyothi and my brother Sri C.H. Nagabhushana and my sister–in-law Smt C. Nagarathna for their support and help to complete this work. I remember with deep love and gratitude my brother Late C.H. Muralidhara who was a friend and guide to me.

I deeply acknowledge the inexplicable moral support, unstinted encouragement and admirable patience of my affectionate husband Sri K.S. Shreekanth and my lovely daughter Ms S. Hemangini during the course of this research work.
I thank all those who directly or indirectly extended their cooperation and encouragement in bringing out this thesis.
