

29. Baskaran Theodore S (2009), History through the Lens - Perspectives on South Indian Cinema, Oriental Blackswan, p.140.

78. Deep Focus: A Film Quarterly (1998) Volume 8, University of California.

97. Ehrlich, David (2011) The Ten Most Fearless Actors of Contemporary World Cinema, California, USA.

104. Ernst and Young-India Film Council (2012). Film Industry in India: New Horizons. Kolkata: Ernst and Young.

137. Grove, Elliot Y (2015) 16 Big Marketing Ideas for Film Makers on a Small Budget, Raindance, screenplay@raindance.co.uk.

154. Hemachandran, J (2000) Film Trade Union Movement, Southern Zone A Flashback, Film Employees Federation of South India, Chennai, India.

165. Institute of Management (2011) Film Marketing Strategies, Unpublished Report, Nirma University, Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India.

178. Joshi, Lalit Mohan (2008), New Laurels for AG. Adoor to Adoor.

187. Kapur, Raj (1986) Statement made on the eve of receiving Dada Saheb Phalke Award, Times of India, New Delhi, India.

242. Mathur, Maneesh (2015) Horror Film Central, New York, USA, advertise@horrorfilmcentral.com

290. Padmanabha, S (2013) The Milestones of History of Films in Mysore, Dr.Rajkumar Film Institute, Mysore, Karnataka, India.

309. Pustkamale, State Resource Centre, Department of Adult Education, Mysore, pp.6-7.

329. Ravikumar, B (1994) Film: Aspirations and Exhibitions, Pratibha Yuva Vedike, Bangalore, p.82.

343. Samaram, Charles (1961) History and Its Methods, the Department for Contemporary Research and Film Documentation, Germany.

264

407. Vrutntanta Patrike (1937) Special Report on Kannada Film Industry, Bangalore, March 11, p.3.

