Acknowledgement

In the name of Allah, the most gracious and the most merciful

The first and the foremost thanks to ‘Allah’ who endowed me an opportunity to experience the voyage of knowledge and explore new scenario of career and phase of my life. I am heartiest thankful to my Lord for His blessings and guidance to fulfil the protocol of my entire course of Ph.D. Allah bestowed me with all such glorious gifts of life which made me to become better human in this world and hereafter.

I would like to acknowledge my supervisor Professor Saghir Ahmad Ansari at Department of Agricultural Economics and Business Management, Aligarh Muslim University for his guidance and tremendous mentoring for completing my thesis. His healthy criticism and his own unique style of working and guidance are remarkably appreciable, which led me to grow as a research scholar. His tips for doing best is priceless, not only in my professional life but in my personal life as well. His advice, brilliant comments, and suggestions are worthy of special appreciation and influential.

Further, I would like acknowledge my co-supervisor, Associate Professor Jabir Ali at Centre for Food And Agribusiness Management, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Lucknow, who has been there to support me with his intellectual advice and guidance, since the beginning. I am very grateful to him for his valuable guidance and letting me to experience new challenges and accomplishments.

I also would like to extend my sincere thanks to the Chairman, Professor Akrum A. Khan and other teachers of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Business Management, AMU for their cooperation and support during the period of pursuing my Ph.D. thesis. I would like say thanks to the non-teaching staff of the department and the entire scholar fraternity for being there as moral support and staying there for their help. I would also like to thank to my colleagues Waseem Khan and Shazia Tabassum who supported me in writing and analysis part of my work. I am thankful to library staff of National Institute of Public Finance & Policy (NIPFP), New Delhi for their kind support in the data collection process.

A special thanks to my family, my parents Mr. Zubair Ahmad and Mrs. Zafar Sultana for all the sacrifices that they have made on my behalf. Their sincere wishes and prayers for me were what sustained me thus far. Words cannot express how grateful I am to them. They always have been with me as shield in all situations of hue and cries. I must say my parents were the only reason for all jaunty and jolly of my life. My elder brother Puzail Ahmad, whose unspoken and unaccountable support, guidance, love, and care contributed a lot not only in the completion of my work, but also becoming independent person in every corner of my life. My younger brothers and sisters, Zeenat Fatima, Zeba Fatima, Faiz Ahmad, Samreen Fatima and Ifham Ahmad have worked for me as all-time manpower and assistance, which is purely selfless and undefined reward of God. I am thankful to my grandfather ex-Principal, S.M. Ismail Shah, JIC, Azamgarh. My uncle, Er. Firoz Ahmad and my entire kith and kin who have always been there with their moral support, love and encouragement throughout the journey of my career. I would like to thank all my childhood friends- Saima, Roshan, Farheen and Hina for their support.

Most importantly, I would like to express appreciation and heartiest thankfulness to my beloved husband Dr. Nazir Hussain, the most important and strong pillar of my life, who spent sleepless nights with me and always supported me in the moments when there was no one to answer my queries. He helped me stay determine and keep patience in hard times and encouraged me to achieve my goal. I am also thankful to my entire in-law family members for their prayers, wishes, and support.
Finally, I would like to thank the administration and management body of my home institution, Aligarh Muslim University to facilitate me with all opportunities and facilities in order to complete my work and providing me healthy environment to learn and acquire knowledge at its highest zenith. At the end, I would like to thank to everyone who has become a part of my great success and apology for not mentioning their names here.

SUMBUL FATIMA