ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to acknowledge people whose continuous assistance and contribution ultimately became the sole determinant in the completion of this thesis. Without their selfless efforts and blessings, the realization of this work would not have been possible. Many people have influenced this research work and I am not in a position to list them all.

First and foremost I sincerely thank Almighty Allah from the bottom of my heart for providing me the strength and capability to work on this topic. Indeed He is the ultimate source of knowledge and I thank Him to enable me to reach far beyond my own restricted ambit of thought and action.

Next, I would like to express my regard and gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Md. Tarique for his sagacious guidance that helped in steering this work in the right direction whenever needed. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Nighat Ahmad, Chairman, Department of Economics and other respected teachers of the department for their continued support. I would specifically like to thank my colleagues at my workplace, Dept. of West Asian Studies, for their consistent motivation and encouragement that gave impetus to this work.

I would also like to thank the staff of the office and seminar Librarian, Department of Economics, Library staff of Maulana Azad Library, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for their benevolent cooperation whenever needed. My earnest thanks goes to my friends Maria Khan, Zafar Iqubal and Shafquat Usmani for their constant encouragement and moral support.

Most importantly, I deeply thank my mother Mrs. Jalees Saeeda and father Mr. Mohd. Makeen for being my inspiration while this arduous task was being carried out. They stood by my side as an enterprising and dynamic force. Without their love, care, trust, encouragement and emotional support, it would have been impossible to complete my research work. They provided unfailing support and continuous encouragement throughout my years of study and through the process of researching and writing this thesis. I am also very thankful to both my brothers and sister for their love and support always. I also place on record, my sense of gratitude to one and all, who directly and indirectly, have lent a helping hand in this venture.
