ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my immense gratitude to my guide, Prof. Sudha Pai who had been a constant source of guidance and assistance, encouragement and inspiration to me for more than a decade. I could complete this work only because my guide was considerate and magnanimous given the fact that I stayed and worked on the thesis most of the time in a far away place. My expressions of gratitude are not mere words but true feelings as she gave me the privilege of ‘disturbing’ her through phone calls and e-mails, gestures enormously significant for me as a student.

I am greatly indebted to all the teachers in the Centre for Political Studies who have taught me since my post-graduation days.

I wish to record my special thanks to my friends, Satheesh Balan, V.B Prabhakar, Sathya Moorthy, K, Thirunavakkarasu, R, Thirunavakkarasu, Nedunkilli, Venkata Krishna Kumar, Krishna Kumar, Selvaraj and Veeramani who in different ways add meaning to my life.

During the course of my research I had visited Jawaharlal Nehru University library, Teen Murti library, Govt. Arts College library (Coimbatore), District Central Libraries in Coimbatore, Thanjavur and I express my profound thanks to these great institutions and their staffs.

My thanks are also to my friends Sivasankar, Srinivasa Raghavan, Ramajayam, Muthuvel and Raveendran who helped me in the final stages of thesis submission. My mother, my brother and his family had always supported me and I am happy to record my thanks to them too. Finally I thank my wife and little children who provide me ceaseless strength and solace, who endured my absence from home for protracted periods while working on the thesis.

Lastly, it would be my sole responsibility for any omissions and errors committed in this thesis.
