ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Mother Teresa of St. Rose of Lima, the Foundress of my Religious Order (CSST) was a woman who lived in nineteen-century, worked hard to empower the social outcasts, and the dalits of Kerala. The compassionate love of the Mother reached out to the sexually exploited, and unwed mothers for their empowerment and education. This has propelled me in my research to explore the less privileged, hence, I owe her a debt of gratitude.

I acknowledge with gratitude all those who supported me to take up this task: the provincial, superiors, and sisters of various Convents. I accord my sincere thanks to the Staff of different Colleges, especially, Mount Carmel College. A special mention to Mount Carmel College, Christ University, B’lore, EFL-Hyderabad, and St. Aloysius College, M’lore for library facilities. I thank Jyoti Nivas College, B’lore and St. Aloysius, M’lore for facilitating the presentation and publication of my papers.

More than all, I thank my research guide, Dr. L. Devika Rani M.A., Ph.D., for the constant support in my academic endeavours and her patience and endurance. Her friendly approach and perpetual encouragement, nevertheless, as a tough task master, helped me in the completion of the mammoth task. All the same, Ma’am remains for me a friend, a guide, and an inspiration to be simple and unassuming in my career.

My special thanks to my family members and friends for their prayers and blessings. I am grateful to all my Professors who imparted valuable insights into the Literary Theories during my Ph.D., Course Work in the University of Mysore. A Million thanks to Dr. Shusheela Punitha- the Sahitya Ackademic Translation Winner 2015 and Ms. Mary Mathew for helping me navigate this journey.

Above all, I thank the Almighty for his blessings and graces.

-Mary D’ Souza