ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I deem it my pleasure to acknowledge the contribution and help rendered by many individuals and organizations in the completion of my doctoral thesis.

I would like to express my profound gratitude and thanks to my guide Dr. K.V. Aiyanna, Professor of Development Studies and former Director, Institute of Development Studies, University of Mysore, for his constant guidance and unfailing encouragement without which it would not have been possible for me to bring out a holistic thesis in its present form.

I thank all the faculties and the office staff of IDS, Mysore, for their encouragement and appreciation.

I would like to acknowledge the constant cooperation rendered by the staff of NRHM, Directorate of Health and Family Welfare.

I take this opportunity to thank my past colleagues of Health department, Dr. Ramana Reddy, Principal Secretary to Health Department and Shri. Victor Nischit, Chief Accounts Officer who lent their constant cooperation in my present study.

I also acknowledge the help of Sri. H.L. Mohan of KHPT and his staff for their help in administering the questionnaire in Udupi and Koppal districts.

My profound thanks to Sri. B.K. Venkatesh, for converting the hard facts of life in black and white, the present form of my thesis.

The encouragement, appreciation, love and care shown by my mother Smt. Balamani, wife Padhmapriya, my son Harishnarayan and my daughter Ashmitha Uoormila, are priceless during my study.

Finally, I deem it an important opportunity to thank all those who have directly or indirectly helped me in bringing out the study in the present form of thesis.
