List of Figures

Figure 1: Intellectual Capital Model of Skandia ............................................................. 15
Figure 2: Model of Human Capital ................................................................................. 61
Figure 3: Theoretical Framework for Human Capital ..................................................... 66
Figure 4: Contingency Variables in Crisis Management ................................................ 83
Figure 5: The Process Model for Crisis Management .................................................. 109
Figure 6: Theoretical Framework for Crisis Management ........................................... 111
Figure 7: Agreement of proper communication in helping managing the crisis situations ....................................................................................................................... 157
Figure 8: Agreement of importance of management style in handling crisis ............... 158
Figure 9: Agreement of influence of motivational activities of the managers in handling crisis .................................................................................................................. 160
Figure 10: Agreement of the behavior of managers in handling crisis .......................... 159
Figure 11: Importance of decision-making criteria and its influence in crisis management .................................................................................................................. 161
Figure 12: Agreement on effect of proper assignment of job in managing the crisis ... 162
Figure 13: Agreement of the effect of selection of employees and its importance in crisis management ................................................................. 163
Figure 14: Efficiency of the workforce plays an important role in crisis management 164
Figure 15: Maintenance of the workplace legislation has an important role in crisis management .................................................................................................................. 165
Figure 16: Agreement of personal understanding among workforce and its effect on crisis management.................................................................................................................. 166
Figure 17: Understanding the job roles helps to manage the crisis situations .......... 167
Figure 18: Proper understanding of the organizational goals is helpful for managing the crisis management .................................................................................................................. 168
Figure 19: Having proper knowledge regarding the decision making aspects helps to manage the crisis situations ................................................................. 169
Figure 20: Understanding the organizational culture the management is helpful for managing crisis .................................................................................................................. 170
Figure 21: Detailed knowledge about the crisis and proper management skills is helpful for managing the crisis situations ................................................................. 171
Figure 22: Employee employer relationship plays a vital role in crisis management .. 172
Figure 23: Engagement of the employees in the decision making activities plays an important role in the crisis management ................................................................. 173
Figure 24: Engagement of the employees in the organizational legislation development helps to manage the crisis ................................................................. 174
Figure 25: Engagement of the employees in the problem solving activities helps to manage the crisis situations ................................................................. 175
Figure 26: Participation of the employees in the HR policies helps to manage the crisis efficiently .................................................................................................................. 176
Figure 27: The availability of learning opportunities to the employees can help to efficiently handle the crisis situation ................................................................. 177
Figure 28: Effective learning environment for the employees is helpful for crisis management .............................................................................................................. 178
Figure 29: Efficiency of the learning materials has a significant role in crisis management .................................................................................................................. 179
Figure 30: The learning ability of the employees has an important role in crisis management .................................................................................................................. 180
Figure 31: The ability of the trainers plays a vital role in crisis management ......................................................... 181
Figure 32: Managing the human resources properly helps to manage the crisis ......................................................... 182
Figure 33: Motivating the human resources helps to efficiently manage the crisis situations ................................................................. 183
Figure 34: Professional development of the human resources plays an efficient role in the crisis management ........................................................................................................ 184
Figure 35: Reward and recognition to the employees helps to manage the crisis situations ................................................................. 185
Figure 36: Proper assistance to the human resources helps to manage the crisis situation........................................................................................................................................................................... 186