My source of inspiration comes from Manda Krishna Madiga, (MRPS), social activist, massive mobiliser, who has dedicated his life and struggling for the social justice, in telugu speaking states for about 3 decades (Since 1994). Krishna Madiga for whom I admire the most and perhaps MRPS has brought various public policies for marginalized sections and poor. The major public policies are health policy, Arogya Sree (2006), pension and welfare policies for person with disabilities and senior citizens, widow pensions with considerable hike.

T V Narayana (Former APPSC Member), senior dalit activist, advisor. Bejawada Wilson (Raman Magsaysay Awardee), Kaki Madava Rao IAS Rtd, Sri. Bharath Bhushan IRTS Rtd, A. Vidhya Sagar IAS Rtd, R S Praveen Kumar IPS, for rendering their services in Central and State goverment and their consistant assistance and enormous contribution for the community development and empowerment in terms of higher education and mobility.

Vemula Yellaiah (Kakka), Krupakar Madiga, Joopaka Subadra, Ms. Gogu Shyamala for their contribution and uncompromising literal and cultural manifestations, voicing the community and its causes.
