Acknowledgements

During the course of my work on the Topic “The Role of Muslims in Separatist Politics in Assam During 1874-1947,” I have incurred many a debt which I take great pleasure in acknowledging.

In the first place, I am deeply indebted to my research supervisor Prof. Debasish Bhattacharjee (Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Assam University, Silchar), without whose able guidance and whole-hearted co-operation completion of the work on a lengthy topic within allotted time, would not have been possible. Along with this, my thanks also go to all other faculty members of the Department of Political Science, Assam University, Silchar, who helped me in many ways. My sincere thanks is for Library Staff, Assam University, Silchar for their whole-hearted co-operation during the preliminary stage of my work.

I am also thankful to my teacher and presently my senior colleague Sri Bhupesh Chandra Pradhan (HOD, Pol. Science, S.S. College, Hailakandi) for making his personal collection of books available to me. Alongside, my sincere thanks is for the Library staff of S.S. College, Hailakandi for extending their whole-heart co-operation.

Besides, I am immensely grateful to Mr. Fakar Uddin Mazumder, (Assistant Professor, Deptt. of Economics, Lala Rural College, Lala, Dist.- Hailakandi) for making a very important book available to me from his College Library.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to Mr. Dharmeswar Sonowal, Director, Assam State Archives, Guwahati, Assam, and his Staff for extending whole-hearted co-operation and helping hand in course of data collection. In the same way, I am thankful to the Director and staff of National Archives of India, New Delhi, for extending their co-operation during my visit to the same on a few occasions.

Last but not the least, my sincere appreciation is for Mr. Anowar Hussain Ahmed of Sunlight Computers, Hailakandi, for typing and printing the scripts so nicely, and also for my nephew Tanvir Anjum Mazumder for providing assistance during data-analysis through his expertise in computer application.
