ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am foremost grateful to my guide, Prof. M.P.MAHADEVAIAH, Department of Studies in Ancient History and Archaeology, Manasagangotri, for his thoughtful and innovative comments throughout my research. I also would like to appreciate to Dr. Arazollah Najafi, professor of Archaeology in Islamic Azad University, Abhar branch, who advised me in my research with his brilliants idea and helped me for collecting sources and information.

I also feel much ratified to all the faculty members of the department, Chairperson Dr. V. Shobha and the other staffs of the department of studies of Ancient History and Archaeology, Dr. G. Kariappa, Dr. K. Prabhu, Dr. K.S Bettappa, Dr. H.N. Kalaswamy, Dr. N.S. Rangeraju Retired Professor and Dr. MV. Krishnappa Retired Professor for their constant encouragement. Here, I would also like to especial thank Mrs. T.V. Usha, Clerk-cum-Typist in our department, who took care of all the pain of administrative paper work during my Ph. D and T.C.C and office attenders sri Kapanalah, and sri, Shivaraju.

I would like to thank to all the research scholars of the department of studies of Ancient History and Archaeology. I have learnt greatly from them in several discourses at various occasions.

I owe a great deal to my husband Ehsan MohammadHosseini who, through his own research, comments and questions, have encouraged, supported and enlightened me. He helped me in field work and data collection as well as in preparation of my thesis. His friendship and professional collaboration meant a great deal to me. I also should be thanks full of my daughters Nirvana and Panteha which I spent some of their time for doing my research.

Thanks are due to the librarians and the staff of the many libraries that I have frequented in the course of my research. I would particularly like to express my appreciation of the staff of Mysore University Library, Mysore Palace Library. I am also grateful to the officials and staff members of Archaeological Survey of India as well as the State Archaeology department who provided me with all kind of assistance in my field work and data collection.

Last but most importantly, I would express thanks to my family, my father Mr. Nosratollah Kordi, my mother Mrs. Manijah Khandan, my mother in law Mrs. Maryam Alemi, my sisters Mrs. Fereshteh Kordi and Mrs. Somayeh Kordi and my Brothers, without whose absolute faith, love and encouragement, I could not have come this far.

I would like to thank Mrs. Nilla for going through my manuscript for possible errors in a short time. I accept responsibility for mistakes, errors of judgment, misrepresentation of the facts or at other failings of this work.

To everyone, I offer heartfelt thanks...
