ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to record my profound sense of gratitude and respect to my supervisor, Dr. Surekha Dangwal, Reader, Department of English, HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar (Garhwal), for her valuable and pragmatic views, advice, critical judgement, words of encouragement and overall the painstaking supervision which she has bestowed on me at every successive stage of this work. I am really indebted to her for acquainting me with the area of South Asian Diaspora and Postcolonial literature.

I also express my gratitude and sincere regards to Prof. S.S. Deo, Head, Department of English, HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar (Garhwal), for providing me space to work and necessary guidance.

It is my privilege to thank Prof. R.C. Dangwal, Department of Commerce, HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar (Garhwal) for his constant encouragement and words of motivation that have indeed augmented the pace of my work.

I wish to thank the learned teachers of the Department of English, HNB Garhwal University for valuable suggestions and help as and when required. I also owe my special thanks to the research co-fellows for their co-operation and support.

The libraries of HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar (Garhwal), Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi, Sahitya Academy, New Delhi and Shastri Indo – Canadian Institute, New Delhi are duly acknowledged for providing necessary literature and help to complete the task.

Thanks are also due to Mr. Pradeep Bhatt, PrintMedia, Srinagar Garhwal for extending internet facilities despite his busy engagements. I am grateful to the Principal and fellow teachers of the Government Intermediate College (GIC), Kirtinagar, Tehri Garhwal, for their assistance and co-operation. I humbly acknowledge my thanks to all those who have directly or indirectly supported me in pursuing my work.

Little Gautam deserves silent words of thanks for letting me to share and exploit his intimate and loving moments of motherly affection for my cause.

Last but not the least, I owe my sincere thanks to my husband Dr. B.S. Bhandari for inspiration, valuable help, painstaking assistance and tolerance throughout the research work.
