Acknowledgement

Life is the best boon given to human being by god, however the environment in which he grew up is more important. It is a pleasant aspect for me to express my deep and sincere gratitude to the people due to whom it has been possible for me to accomplish my Ph. D. thesis. It is very simple to list them all but very difficult to express the thanks for their innumerable supports.

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my thesis supervisor, Dr. D. K. Avasthi for bringing me to this amazing field and endless support of my research. My Ph. D. period under his supervision has been an extraordinary period of my life, to which I can never forget. I have found him a very good teacher as well as a very good guardian as during my stay in IUAC, I have never felt that I am away from my parents. Apart from research work, he has also taught me too many skills which are very important in my life. He always, anywhere, anytime, has given time to discuss scientific things with me apart from his busy schedule. His outstanding expertise, knowledge on science has been a source of inspiration and his cool patience and ready to help nature in any kind of situation is one of the things I will never forget. I have always tried to learn several things from him as much as possible, but knowledge is never complete and one should keep on learning till whole life. I am really very fortunate to have Dr. Avasthi as my supervisor in my life. I am very very thankful to him and I will always be indebted to him for his great and invaluable support.

It is a thing of great pleasure for me to express my sincere thanks to Prof. G. K. Mehta, Dr. Amit Roy and Dr. D. Kanjilal for their constant encouragements and fruitful discussions during my Ph. D. work. I would like express my grateful thanks to Dr. S. K. Dutta (Ex-Ph. D. program coordinator) and Dr. A. Mandal for their constant encouragement and support during Ph. D. period.

I avail this opportunity to express my heartiest thanks to Dr. Ambuj Tripathi, Dr. Ravi Kumar, Dr. Fouran Singh, Dr. D. Kabiraj, Mr. Shiva Kumar, Mr. Saif A. Khan, Pawan Kulriya and Indra under whose inspiring guidance and never ending interest in this work have initiated many discussions and helped me to plan the experiments and analyzing the results. I am very thankful to them as they have always considered me as a member of their family and their friendly behaviour allowed me for several fruitful discussions. They have been kind enough to help readily during this work. I am deeply thankful to Mr. S. R. Abhilash for his enthuising and timely support in the target laboratory during synthesis of nanocomposite films.

I have been very lucky to have the company of Dr. Satyabrata Mohapatra (Post Doc Fellow) at IUAC. His friendly nature, working attitude and enormous moral support influenced me very much. I render my heartiest thanks to him. I would like to express my special thanks to Dinesh Agarwal (Post Doc Fellow) at IUAC. He has been a very good friend of mine and has helped me in each and every aspect during my thesis. I have been very fortunate to have him as a friend in my life.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to members of the Pelletron group, Dr. S. Chopra, Mr. Sunil Ojha, Mr. Satinath Gargari, Mr. R. Joshi, Mrs. Devrani, Mr. Vijay Patel, Mr. Jagdeesh, Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Mr. M. P. Singh, Mr. Nayan Panwar, Mr. Mohan Nishal, Mr. Suraj, Mr. Pranav Singh and also other members for their enormous support during irradiation experiments. Special thanks to Mr. Sunil Ojha for treating me as a younger brother and as a good friend which has been a source of constant moral support during research.

Many many thanks to whole staff at IUAC whose friendship and support have made it more than a temporary place of study for students from all over the world. Several thanks to IUAC canteen staff for providing good food, which is the most important thing to do any work.

I am very thankful to Prof. Ajay Gupta and Dr. N. P. Lalla (UGC-DAE-CSR, Indore) for providing me the opportunity to perform several characterizations and their fruitful discussions enabled me to understand the results.

It is very pleasant opportunity for me to express my sincere thanks to Prof. S. B. Ogale (NCL, Pune). Apart from being an eminent physicist, his friendly nature, exceptionally motivating attitude and caring nature has been the source of inspiration for me. Several experimental and theoretical discussions with him enabled me to explain the results and express them in fragrant way.

I am pleased to express my heartiest thanks to Dr. Abhijit Biswas and Dr. Ilker Bayer (office of Electronic Miniaturization, Alaska) for their invaluable experimental and theoretical support during my Ph. D. period.

I have been very lucky to work with Dr. Jean Claude Pivin, from CSNSM, Orsay, who met me as a French collaborator and became a good teacher and a good friend. I express my sincere thanks to him for his exceptional and invaluable support to me.

I would like to express my sincere regards to Prof. Franz Faupel and Prof. Adelung Rainer from Technical Faculty, Kiel, Germany for their fruitful discussions. Their simple and friendly nature inspired me to discuss several basic concepts.

It is a pleasant moment for me to express my sincere thanks to Prof. M. C. Sharma, Department of Physics, University of Allahabad, who inspired me to join IUAC.

The community of students at IUAC offers an excellent environment for new comers to learn several things related to research and life. It is a golden opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my friend circle in IUAC, with whom I have spent a memorable period of my life with never ending memories. I would like to thank Dr. R. J. Choudhary, Dr. Bidhan Mohanta, Amit Kumar, Yashpal Katharria, Dinesh Negi,
Sandeep Kumar, Ranjeet Karn, Rahul Singhal, Abhinav Singh and several other colleagues for sharing so many special moments, contributing to a common story whose colorful pages now lead me towards a new chapter.

I would like to give a big thank to all other friends from different Universities Dr. Sarvesh Kumar, Dr. Manvendra Kumar, Vikas Bardonwal, Tarkeshwar, Diva, Abhshek Gupta, Manisha, Ram Gopal Singh, Hardeep, C. V. S. Kiran, Amit Chawla, Anju, Shuchi, Srinivasa, Shailendra, Dinesh Shukla, Devki, Subhash Pokhariyal, Sharmistha, Jai Prakash, Shiv Poojan, Rakesh, Virendra, Anand, Shraddha and other several colleagues. I could individually, but will throw a large party instead.

I am forever grateful to my grandparents Sri Surendra Nath Mishra and parents Sri Avadehesh Kumar Mishra and Smt. Savitri Devi Mishra and to all family members, whose foresight and values paved the way for a privileged education. I would like express my heartiest thanks to my maternal grandfather Sri Badri Prasad Divedi, who brought me up like a gardener does for a flower and to my uncle Sri Sheo Kumar Mishra and aunt Smt. Suman Mishra who supported me to grow up afterwards. Their endless love, guidance, teaching, training and invaluable support at each and every moment showed me the way to proceed in life. I would like to express my warm thanks to my brothers Devendra, Arun, Pankaj, Neeraj and Ambuj with whom I spent the memorable period of my life. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all my colleagues and relatives who have directly indirectly helped me to proceed in my life.

Last but most, I would like to render my reverence to Sri Sant Balyogeshwar Mahraji, with whom I received spiritual knowledge called GYAN. Time to time, when I felt myself full of depression and in problems, this gyan has made me internally and morally strong to survive and directed a way to proceed further. I am very thankful to him for this great boon and will always be indebted to him at each and every moment in my life. Thank you too much my dearest and lovest Maharaji.
