ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I would like to take this opportunity to give my deep sense of gratitude and debt to my research adviser Prof. Krishna Pal Singh, for providing his excellent guidance, support, encouragement, and inspiration throughout my research work. It has been a great opportunity to work under his guidance with his vast scientific knowledge and analytical approach. This research and dissertation could not have been completed without his insightful ideas and guidance. Many discussions I had with him during this period made me to rethink logically and have helped me to improve my learning and deep knowledge of the subject. I greatly feel fortunate enough for his patience to assist me devoted by him among his busy schedule. Without his expertise and guidance, this work would not have been accomplished.

I would also like to extend my gratitude to Dr. Anu Puri for his support and valuable advice throughout this work. I am sincerely grateful to and Dr. L.P. Singh (CBRI, Roorkee) for encouraging me to pursue my research interest and his kind support. I would also like to thank my friend Mr. Dilshad Ali and Dr. Kanchan Karki. I wish to acknowledge that this research is supported by Biophysics Unit, CBSH, G.B. Pant University of Agriculture and technology, Pantnagar. Director, NRCE-National Research Centre on Equines, Hisar, is gratefully acknowledged for provided Biosafety Level-3 facilities in Hisar and encouragements.

I would like to express my warm thank to the dedicated postgraduate researchers who assisted me in conducting experiments: Himanshu Kharkwal, Mudita Pant, and Neha Joshi. This work wouldn’t be as comprehensive without your help. I would like to show my sincere appreciation to all Schmidt group members and alumni with special thanks to Ms. Sweeta Ahlawat for spending her time imparting constructive comments, suggestions and corrections in my thesis and other experiment related research works. I was very fortunate to work with the greatest people at UCB, Haldi.

Finally I would like to express my warm thanks to all my family members and close friends for always being there for me. I would also like to express my gratitude to my strong, loving and devoted mother Shrimati Kamlesh Nehra and to my tough loving, kind, and courageous father Shri Ravindra Kumar Nehra for encouraging me to pursue my dreams with no fear. I can never repay you for everything you have given me throughout my life. Also, I would like to thank my departed grandfather Chaudhary Ramnivash Nehra and my generous loving uncle and brothers for their inspiration and support.

Lastly, I shall ever remain thankful to all those who could not have find separate names but had directly or indirectly helped me.
