At the very outset, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my honored supervisor Prof. D. C. Goswami, Retired Professor, Department of Environmental Science, Gauhati University, for his sterling guidance and expert supervision rendered to me during the course of this study.

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. S. Kalita, Head of the Department and the office staff of the department of Environmental science, Gauhati University for providing me the opportunity to carry out my research work in the department.

I would like to express my earnest gratitude to the Water Resource Department, Public Health and Engineering Department (PHE); Nagaon Municipality Board; Brahmaputra Board; Fishery Department, Nagaon; Irrigation Department; Assam Remote Sensing Application Center (ARSAC); North East Space Application Center (NESAC) etc. for supplying the necessary information, data and maps required for completing this research work.

I owe lifelong obligation to Bhaiti da, Anil Muha, Milanta da, Saurav da, Dul, Raja, Mr. Chirag Gupta (Scientist/Eng. NESAC) and my brother-in law Mr. Nilkamal Bora for their untiring help and support all throughout my field visits. I thank my parents for providing me the moral support and impetus to complete this research work successfully.

I shall always remain grateful to the INSPIRE Programme, Department of Science and Technology, Government of India for providing me the necessary financial assistance during my Ph. D tenure.

Minakshi Bora
