ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my immense pleasure to express deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed supervisors Dr Saurabh Baruah, Senior Principal Scientist of the Geo Sciences & Technology Division (GSTD) of CSIR-North East Institute of Science & Technology (CSIR-NEIST), Jorhat, Assam and Prof. (Dr) Bhagawat Pran Duarah of the Department of Geological Sciences, Gauhati University, Guwahati, Assam for their invaluable guidance, support and constant encouragement which have always been a source of inspiration during my Ph.D work. I am also thankful to Dr D Ramaiah, Director, CSIR-NEIST and Dr Mridul Hazarika, Vice Chancellor of Gauhati University for facilitating me to conveniently carry out my research work.

I express my sincere gratitude to the Head of the Department of Geological Sciences, Gauhati University, Prof. (Dr) Parag Phukon for his kind permission to utilize the department facilities during my Ph.D research period and for being so considerate and encouraging.

I am also thankful to my colleagues of GSTD, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat for always boosting my morale with their kind words.

Sincere thanks goes to Dr Chandrani Singh, Assistant Professor, IIT, Kharagpur for providing me with the necessary research papers related to Lg wave attenuation studies and for her valuable guidance.

Many thanks are due to the research scholars of GSTD, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat and of the Department of Geological Sciences, Gauhati University for their alacrity to extend their helping hand in moments of need.

I would also like to thank the superannuated colleagues of GSTD, CSIR-NEIST for always believing in my ability and encouraging me to bring out my best.

Thanks are also due to the teaching fraternity of the Department of Geological Sciences, Gauhati University for their moral support.

I am also thankful to all the support staff of GSTD, CSIR-NEIST and the Department of Geological Sciences, Gauhati University for kindly obliging all my requests which is indeed a great support.

Last but not the least, I extend my sincere gratitude to our family for their selfless sacrifices and encouragement that inspired me in carrying out this research work smoothly.
