ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“To prepare a thesis or any report without the assistance and encouragement of other people is impossible. This one is certainly no exception;” also a lot of efforts have been taken by me (the research scholar) in this thesis. My sincere thanks to all respondents (Students and Teachers) and the educational institutions (SSC Schools) whose support, encouragement and contribution I am deeply indebted to. I express my heartfelt gratitude to all those who in one way or the other, may have contributed to the realization of this thesis. First I am grateful to the Supreme Power - Almighty God, Lord Ahura Mazda for the good health and knowledge bestowed upon me and without whose grace and guidance this thesis would not have become a reality. Next to Him, are my dear departed parents Dhun and Jal Sorabji Solai to whom I am indebted with deep sense of reverence for their love, encouragement and blessings as well as being by my side spiritually during the completion of my Ph. D. My sincere thanks go to my guide and advisor, Dr. Harsha Merchant, whose intellectually exemplary and conscientious guidance; monitoring and positive criticism enabled me to weather the stormy path to the success of the thesis. I am highly indebted to the Chairman, Vice Chancellor, Dean, Faculty Heads, Supervisors (Internal and External) and all the Professors / Staff of the JJTU especially Dr. Rakhee Keluskar, Dr. Madhu Gupta, Dr. Anju Singh, Dr. Kaushik, Dr. G. Gupta and Dr. Ajit Kaswan for their guidance as well as for providing necessary information and majorly their support in completion of the thesis. Special thanks go to all the Heads / Principals in the various S.S.C. State Board schools, in the K-P (West) Ward, Mumbai who were involved during the validation of survey work of the project. These include, among others Dr. Ajay Kaul, Mrs. Priyanka Rajani, Mrs. Vera D’souza, Principal Sunil Mantri and Mrs. Bhageshwari Sharma who with their passionate participation, valuable information, attention and time especially during the survey for the thesis. I wish to appreciate the technical help and guidance given by Dr. Amol Parab, Mr. Rajendra Chaurasiya, Mr. Vishal Vijayan and Mr. Sanket Desai. I acknowledge the support, encouragement and challenges I received from my friends and colleagues that led to the completion of this work. My profound gratitude and appreciation goes to among others to Mrs. Mabel Benjamin, Mrs. Poonam Bana, Mr. Arif Shaikh, Mr. Vivek Dethe and Mrs. Juveriya Jirjis.

Finally, I must specially appreciate the passionate moral support and constant encouragement accorded to me by my husband Daraius Faramroze Aibara for the entire duration of the Ph. D course including the sacrifices and self-denials he went through during my studies. The study has indeed helped me to explore more knowledgeable avenues related to my topic and surely will help me in the future too. Any omission does not mean lack of gratitude as I have no choice words to express my thanks, but my heart is full of gratitude for the favors received from each and every person. God bless you all.

Thank you

HUTOXI DARAIUS AIBARA