ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this research work would not have possible without the contribution of a number of individuals whom I am indebted to.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my research guide Dr. (Mrs.) Rinalini Pathak Kakati, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Gauhati University, not only for her guidance, but also for being extremely generous with her time and effort. Even in the midst of her busy schedule, both in her personal and professional life, she has continuously provided me with valuable suggestions, right from the beginning of writing my synopsis, framing the research objectives, research methodology, to the final analysis and conclusion part of my thesis. For me, it is a proud privilege and matter of honour that I could complete my research work under her intellectual vigour.

I am also very much thankful to Professor (Dr.) Munin Kakati (former Head, Department of Business Administration, and Dean, Faculty of Management, Gauhati University) for giving me the opportunity to start this research work and providing me continuous motivation and positive suggestions during my Ph.D. Program.

I am grateful to Dr. Pradeep Kumar Jain (Head and Professor – Department of Business Administration, Gauhati University) for giving me the opportunity to pursue this Ph.D. Program and the subsequent submission of my Thesis at the department.
I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Manoj Kumar Chowdhury (former Head and Professor, Department of Business Administration, Gauhati University), Dr. Monoshree Mahanta (Associate Professor), Dr. Samir Sarkar (Assistant Professor, G.U.), and Dr. Banajit Changkakati (Assistant Professor, G.U.) and Sri Surajit Chakraborty for their support and positive suggestions during my research work.

I am also very grateful to library staff of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM)-Kolkata, for their support during my research work.

My special thanks to Dr. Homeswar Kalita (Principal, Gauhati Commerce College), Dr. Sunil Kumar Saikia (Director, Department of Business Administration, GCC Centre of Management Studies), Dr. M.R. Sharma (former Director, Department of Business Administration, GCC Centre of Management Studies), and my colleagues Dr. Jonali Sarma, Manmit Mahanta, Pranab Jyoti Sarma, Suman Sarmah, Sauvik Bhuyan, Abhinawa Talukdar and other members of the GCC Centre of Management Studies (GCMS) family for their help in creating a very friendly atmosphere for the completion of my research work.

I am also thankful to Dr. Shazeed Ahmed (Assistant Professor, AIM), Dr. Chayanika Senapati (Assiatant Professor, KKHSOU), and my friends who continuously motivated me for this research work.
I am also thankful and express my gratitude to Nripen Deka, Prabhat Das, Ali, and other staff members of the Department of Business Administration, Gauhati University, for their hospitality during my visit to the department.

I am indebted to my parents and my spouse without whose moral support and continuous motivation, this research work would not have been possible.

(Rashmi Rekha Mahanta)
