Acknowledgements

I humbly submit this effort of mine at the feet of the Lord.

Words are few to thank my guide and supervisor, Dr H. Sadasivan Pillai who has directed me to the right path and whose timely advice and guidance, right from the beginning to the very end, has enabled me to complete this thesis. His simplicity, patience and tolerant scrutiny of my writings will always be remembered with the warmest gratitude.

Sincere thanks to Fr. Jose Viruppel, for allowing me to use the Lawrence Durrell Study Centre at the Postgraduate Reference Library of Saint Berchman's College, Changanassery. But for his liberal attitude, I believe this work would not have reached its culmination at this point of time.

Boundless gratitude to my Centre, St.Thomas College, Pala, the Principals Dr. M.M Mathew, Dr. Mathew John. K, HOD, Dept of English Dr.Thomas Augustine Joseph, Librarian and Staff for all the help and support rendered.
I gratefully acknowledge the assistance rendered by the Librarians and Staff of –

a. IACIS, Hyderabad.
b. SCILET, American College, Madurai.
c. University of Madras, Chennai.
d. British Library, Trivandrum.
e. School of Letters, M G University.
f. General Library, MG University.
g. British Library, Kuwait.
i. Kuwait University, Kuwait.
j. Dept of Philosophy, SN College, Cherthala.
k. Dept of English, SN College, Kollam.

I am also forever indebted to my friends, particularly my former colleagues Ms Premalatha Gopinath and Mr. C. Ajayan, my mother and all members of my family for directly and indirectly helping me and bearing with me.

Pala

20 Nov, 2007

Saroj V. Haridas