ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis started with a wish to encounter and project problems in art practices of Keralam in the modern contexts of life. With immense understanding Dr. A.K. Nambiar made me go through the tough realities of finding out, documenting and conceptualizing a huge media material for this thesis. Without his inspiring guidance and trust in my efforts, this work would not have been possible.

Smt. A.Indira, Museum assistant and Sri. Rajendran, staff member of Appan Thampuran Smarak Masika shekharam of Kerala Sahitya Academi, Ayyanthol have to be credited with due gratitude for helping me by all their means during archival reseach. Sri. E. Rajendran, librarian and other staff members of Kerala Sahitya Academy library, Thrissur were always ready to get me any book I wanted.

I had taken up ‘illustrations’ as an area of research right from post graduate times in Art History in M.S.University, Baroda. I am grateful to Dr.Shivaji Panikkar for the time he spent for insightful discussions on the subject. I also thank Dr.Sanjoy Mallik (Faculty of Fine Arts, Shantiniketan, Kolkatha) for generously spending time on this subject in the early stages. I extend gratitude to Dr.P.P.Raveendran, Dr.V.C. Haris, Prof. D.Vinayachandran and Dr.Krishnan for their valuable comments and suggestions. Sri.M.V.Devan gave a lot of necessary information. Dr. N.Sam, and late Dr.P.K.Rajan, International centre for Kerala studies, Kerala University gave me opportunities for sharing ideas. Sri. J.R.Prasad (Illustrator, Mathrubhumi Weekly) extended all kind of help. Reflections of Artist Namboodiri and Sri.Madhavan Nair (illustrator in Kalakaumudi weekly) were quite useful. Sri Kadangottu Prabhakaran Editor of periodicals in Kerala Sahitya Academi, had offered me important reference materials.

I am indebted to Amma, Achan, Rajesh and little Adityan for always standing by my side sparing me from many of their domestic demands.
