This study is shaped by my teachers who wholeheartedly guided me in my research work. I wish to express my heart-felt gratitude to my guide, Dr. K. M. Krishnan who guided me through this project with near infinite patience and discerning insight, as I often struggled along the crisscrossing, labyrinthine by-lanes of comics and theory. Needless to say, without his support, this thesis would have remained a mere dream.

Let me express my gratitude and sincere thanks to Dr. V. C. Harris, Director, School Of Letters, whose valuable guidance, helpful suggestions for modifications and impetus have played a substantial role in bringing this work to fruition.

I also place on record my sincere thanks to Dr. Isac Sequeira and Dr. Susie Tharu for giving me an insight into comics.

I express my gratitude to the library staff of M. G. University, School Of Letters, International Relations and Politics, AJRC (Chennai and New Delhi), ASRC, CIE/FL, Osmania University (Hyderabad), JNU library, Nehru Memorial Library, Sahitya Akademi and National Archives (New Delhi), Kerala University Library and British Library (Thiruvananthapuram) and CSCS (Bangalore) for their cooperation.

I also express my gratitude to Mahatma Gandhi University for giving me Junior Research Scholarship.

I also place on record my sincere gratitude to my fellow researches at School of Letters. I have received much love and kindness from my friends Manacy Jose, Giby M. J., Ashly Susan Philip, Syam P. S., Elizabeth Thomas, Babumon Edampadam, Muhammed Sherrif, Raheem K. M., Krishnakumar, George, Anu, Eldho, Manu, Nasru, Joby Joseph, Arun Raj, Deepu and Deepa Sreenivas.

I place on record my sincere gratitude to Shibu Chettan, Unni, Anish, Maneesh and Ashfaq of Minitek Computers.

Finally, I could not have carried out this study without the support of my family.
