ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Martin Patrick, Reader, Department of Economics, Maharaja’s College, Ernakulam, for his excellent guidance, enthusiastic support, encouragement and timely suggestions throughout this research work.

I remember with gratitude the guidance and encouragement given by Prof. George Varghese, Former Director, School of Management Studies, CUSAT, especially at the initial stage of this work.

I acknowledge with gratitude the help extended by the library staff of IFMR Chennai, IIM Bangalore, Department of Applied Economics CUSAT, School of Management Studies CUSAT and Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, in collecting the necessary literature for the study. My special thanks to Geojit Financial Services especially to Mr. C.J. George, Managing Director, for his help and encouragement.

My special thanks to Dr. S Muraleedharan, Reader, Department of Economics, Maharaja’s College, Ernakulam for his valuable suggestions and constant help.

I am highly obliged to Prof. N.K. Vijayan and Prof. T.P. Chandran Pillai, Department of English, Maharaja's College, Ernakulam for their help in correcting the linguistic inadequacies.

I remember with gratitude the encouragement and support given by my colleagues in the Department of Statistics and Department of Economics of Maharaja's College, Ernakulam.
Also I owe my thanks to Prof. K.A. Rajeevan Pillai, Department of Statistics, Maharaja’s College for his help, especially in writing the necessary computer programs for the data management of this study.

This work has been made possible by the sustained help, support and prayers of my wife and children.

Above all, I thank God Almighty for making this work possible.

FRANCY T. V.