ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not traveled in a vacuum on this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well-wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis work, I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

First and foremost, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to my research guide Dr. N. Ningaiah, Professor (Retd) Department of Studies in Anthropology, University of Mysore, for introducing me to this exciting field of social science and for his dedicated help, advice, inspiration, encouragement and continuous support, throughout my Ph.D. His enthusiasm, integral view on research and his mission for providing high-quality work, has made a deep impression on me. During our course of interaction during the last five years, I have learnt extensively from him, including how to explore new possibilities, how to regard an old question from a new perspective, how to approach a problem by systematic thinking, data-driven, decision making and exploiting serendipity. Every time I meet him, I can feel “the fire in the belly” which he always talks about. I owe his lots of gratitude for having me shown this way of research. I am really glad to be associated with a person like Dr. N. Ningaiah in my life.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge the help of Dr. Shivakumara, Post-Doctoral Fellows, (PDF) Kuvempu Kannada Adhyayana Samste, University of Mysore, for encourage and providing me an opportunity to do research in Mysore University.
I acknowledge N. Mahesh, Ambedkarite and Leader of Social reformer Movement of Karnataka for his Understanding, encouragement and personal attention.

My thanks are due to Dr. M.R.Gangadhar, Professor and HOD in Department of Anthropology, University of Mysore Manasagangothri, Mysore for his valuable suggestions and untiring help. I am also thankful to Dr. Vijendra and Dr. P. N. Harisha for their support.

I am grateful to Dr. Srikanth, Director of DEED (Development through Education) in Chikka Hunsuru, Hunsuru taluk also Convener Tribal Joint Action-Karnataka for his timely help and encouragement during my research.

I profusely thank Dr. K. Prabhu, Assistant Professor of DOS in Ancient History and Archeology, University of Mysore for his timely help and encouragement during my research.

I acknowledge my profound gratitude to Dr. R. S. Kureel, Vice-Chancellor, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University, Mahow, Madhya Pradesh, for his moral support, encouragement and timely advice.

I thank Manivanan, IAS officer and expert on the Tribes for his support and inspiration.

I am grateful to Mrs. Mahadevamma Dr. N. Ningaiah, Boghadi, Mysore city, who treated me as a mother.

My thanks are due to Prof. Om Prakash Bharathiya, DOS in Sociology, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, Uttra Pradesh, for his suggestions and inspiration. It’s my pleasure to acknowledge Dr. Siddarth R. Rao, Dr Jaleel Abdul from Iraq and Dr. Surendra Kumar for their constant moral support.

I thank the authorities of the following libraries The library, University of Mysore, Anthropological Survey of India Mysore branch, CSIR library, Mysore.
My thanks are due to T. Usha DOS in Ancient History and Archeology, University of Mysore for sharing departmental administrative responsibility throughout my research work.

I cannot forget my fellow scholars in the Department of Anthropology Dr. Mahadev S., Dr. Doreswamy, Dr. Jai Prabhakar S.C. Dr. Sanath Kumar, Dr. Radha M.S, Dr. Dakshayini, Dr. Manjunath, Dr. Shailaja. Dr. Krishnamurthy and Mr.Raju, Chandraiah, Shivananda, Lokesh, Madaiah, Bhadraiah, Madhusudan, Shankara and Guruprasad S.L.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my friends, Ashok H (Advocate) Somashekara, Chandru, Niranjan K. E, Sami Ulla Khan, Bijju, Vasantha and Shiva Shankar Hassan for their moral support.

The Hakkipikki, Jenukuruba and Erava communities’ has been immensely cooperative. I especially thank to Shantha, Nanjunda swamy, Gooty, Modalaraaju, Mohan, Vasanth kumara, Manasa Ravi, P.K.Ramu, and Devamma, for their helpful interactions with me.

The Integrated Tribal Development Program (ITDP) has been a source of information and connectivity for which I thank them.

I thank Chandrakala Additional SP, Mysore, for her unstinting help.

I thank my mother, Mrs. Subbamma, and my father Mr.Puttaswamy would not be the person I am today without their unflagging support and moral courage.

I apologize to any one I have forgotten to mention here.

Mahadevaiah