A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. During this work I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is a pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my gratitude for all of them.

First, I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Professor A. P. Thomas, Director, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University. His wide knowledge and logical way of thinking, keen observation and advice have been of great value for me. His understanding, constant encouragement, personal guidance and critical comments have provided a good basis for the present thesis. I am deeply indebted to him for his valuable support and all the help extended to me during the critical stages of my life. I am also grateful to him for giving me an opportunity to work in this department and feel very proud to be a branch of this big tree.

I owe my most sincere gratitude to my co-guide, Dr. A. A. Mohamed Hatha, Reader, School of Marine Sciences, Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT) for his intellectual guidance, immense knowledge, motivation, enthusiasm, valuable suggestion and critical comments at every stage, which paved the way for the genesis of this successful work. His positive attitude and capacity to combine critique with an immediate empathy and commitment towards students and others engaged in struggle have always inspired me. I am also very thankful to him for his valuable advice and help in my personal life. Besides, his vision of life that indeed inspired me.

I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to Dr. E.V. Ramasamy, Sr. Lecturer, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for his timely help, detailed and constructive comments during this work.

I bow my head in memory of late Dr. R. Satheesh, who had been the soul of the School. I remember his valuable suggestion and critical comments which he shared with me on my work.

I wish to thank Dr. Helvi Heinonen-Tanski, Lecturer, Department of Environmental Sciences, University of Kuopio, Finland, for providing me an opportunity to work in her laboratory as a visiting scientist. During my tenure there, all the help extended by her research team is thankfully acknowledged.

During this work I have collaborated with many colleagues for whom I have great regard, and I wish to extend my warmest thanks to all of them. My heartfelt thanks are due to my lab mates especially Mrs. Harsha Unni, Mr. Mujeeb Rahiman, Mr. Rinoj Varghese, Mrs. Santhi T.R, Miss. Maya George, Mrs. Deepthi G. Nair, Mrs. Soumya M and Mrs. Indu M. Nair for their co-operation and timely help.

I have no words to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Jojo T. D. for his constant inspiration and support in many ways in my life. I would like to thank Mr. B. Ajay Kumar, Research Scholar, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, for his encouragement. Thanks are due to Mr. John C. Mathew, Mr. Rejith P.G, Research Scholars, for their co-operation and support.

During the seven years of my life at the School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, I have been blessed with many good friends without their support and encouragement this work would not have been possible. I extend my sincere thanks to all batches of M.Phil and M.Sc students of the School, whom I know since 2001 for their help and co-operation.

I am deeply indebted to the helping hands extended by the Research Scholars of the department at each and every moment in my life. My heartfelt thanks are due to Mr. Joby Paul, Mr. Sylas VP, Mr. Mahesh Mohan, Mr. Rakesh P.S, Mr. Sreedharan K, Mr. Manoj P, Mr. Jayasuryan KK, Mr. Sylesh Chandran, Mrs. Bindu T. Abraham, Mr. Sreekantan N.P, Shanthi Prapha, Mr. Jobin Thomas, Mrs. Smitha Chandran, Deepa M and Miss. Sujatha S.

The financial supports provided by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) as Senior Research Fellowship (SRF) and by the University Grants Commission (UGC) as Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) under the scheme of Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship (RGNF) are thankfully acknowledged.

My warm thanks are due to Mrs. Shirly Annie Oommen, Mrs. Lekha Nair, Mrs. Beena K, Mr. Thomas Mathew, Mr. Jojo Joseph, FIP Research Scholars, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for their help and valuable suggestions.

I am glad to thank Mr. Salahuddin, Librarian, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for his help. I would also like to express my warm thanks to Mangalakrishnan, Section Officer, and other members of office staff of the School for their help and co-operation. My thanks are due to Mr. Santhosh Kumar, Subash T.K and Mohanan for their help and support.

My father, who is no more, had been the source of inspiration throughout my endeavors. I place my greatest regards to my beloved mother who supported and struggled a lot to attain my academic achievements. I am also grateful to my brother and sisters for their help and inspiration.

Few people come into our lives and make the whole world bright. With great pleasure I wish to thank Miss. Sherin Varghese who has been always by my side as an inspiration and courage. The thesis would not have been possible without her moral support, words of encouragement and the tremendous amount of goodwill.

Above all, the blessing bestowed by the Almighty God is gratefully acknowledged.
