ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a debt of gratitude to many people who directly or indirectly helped me to complete this research work. Before thanking them I pay plentiful thanks to God Almighty for having bestowed me physical and mental health during the entire tenure of this research work. I thank the Authorities of Bharathidasan University for having admitted me as a Research Scholar.

I place on the record my indebtedness to the management of the Jamal Mohamed College (Autonomous) which has given me the opportunity to do the research work that served as a source of sound knowledge throughout the study. My sincere thanks are due to Dr. S. Mohamed Salique, Principal, Jamal Mohamed College (Autonomous) for the encouragement to complete the research work.

I extend my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. J. Mohamed Zeyavudheen, Research Advisor and Assistant Professor, Post Graduate and Research Department of Economics, Jamal Mohamed College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli, for initiating and constantly mentoring this research work.

I found no word to reveal the sense of gratefulness to Dr. A.J. Haja Mohideen, Associate Professor of Economics, Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirappalli, and Dr. A. Khan Mohamed, Associate Professor of Economics, Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirappalli, who, as members of the Doctoral Committee, have questioned and even cross examined that propelled me to bring this thesis in the present shape. Words are not sufficient to thank my colleagues for maintaining peace and pleasure in the work place. I appreciate their cooperation in permitting me to teach the subjects that helped me to get deep insight into my research theme.

I also extend my gratefulness as token of courtesy to the authors and publishers of the books, working papers, discussion papers, articles listed in the bibliography from which I gained deep understanding and borrowed ideas and quoted them throughout the report.

Finally, I convey my hearty thanks to my family members without whose sacrifice the research work is impossible. I acknowledge that the support and help lent by the above have refined the work in every possible way and I own the responsibility for anything that downgrades any aspect of work and the report.
