THE INVESTIGATIVE MACHINERY IN THE ACCUSATORIAL SYSTEM - PROBLEMS AND PERSPECTIVES

CONTENTS

PREFACE i-v

Chapter I – INTRODUCTION 1-18
Society and the Police
What is Policing
Why We Need Police
Working of the Police System in the Post-independent Period
Special Acts
Investigative Machinery in the Post-Independent India
The Praksh Singh Conundrum
The Present Problem

Chapter II – THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM 19-62
Introduction
Criminal Justice Systems
   Adversary System
   Characteristic Features
   a. Conflict resolution System
   b. Passive Role of the Judges
   c. Competing Counsels
   d. Presumption of Innocence
   e. Investigation
Inquisitorial System
   Characteristic Features
   a. Active Role of the Judiciary
   b. Passive Role of the Counsels
   c. Presumption of Innocence
d. Judicial Investigation Contrasting Two Systems Fair Investigation - a Myth?
   Fair Trial – a Myth?
   Truth Seeking – a Myth?
The Investigative Machinery
Conclusion

Chapter III – INVESTIGATIVE MACHINERY AND CRIME INVESTIGATION 63-89
The Investigative Machinery
Evolution of Police
   English Explanation
   Indian Justification
   French Experience
Investigation
Investigation - Historical Account
Relevance of Police Investigation
How to Control Discretion Arrestable Offence
   Detention centre and Detention Officers
   Interrogation
   Custody of Women
Conclusion

Chapter IV – THE INVESTIGATIVE MACHINERY IN INDIA 90-148
Powers and Duties
   Duties and Functions Maintenance of Law and Order Investigation of Crime
Powers
Arrest and Detention Interrogation and Examination
Search
Filing of Final Report
Nature of Power
The Abuse of Power
Arrest and Custody
Interrogation
Search
Fabrication of Evidence and Non-Registration of Cases Violation of Rights of Women Taking citizens Rights Lightly
Human Rights Violations
Importance of Human Rights Protection
In Search of Police
Conclusion

Chapter V – STATUTORY CONTROL OF POLICE IN INDIA 149-216
Introduction
Nature of Discretion Need of Controls on Discretion Scheme of Control
A. Control Before Investigation
   a. Selection and Training
   b. Clarifying Powers and Duties
   c. Protection of Life and Liberty
   d. Maintenance of Law & Order B. Control During Investigation
   a. Arrest & Detention
   b. Interrogation and Recording of Statements
c. Search & Seizure
d. Maintenance of Case Diary
e. Prohibition of Certain Prosecutions
f. Privilege Against Self-incrimination

C. Control After Investigation
a. Filing of Final Report
b. Deficiency in Evidence
c. Further Investigation
d. Restrictions in the Use of Statements

Where the Control Fails?
a. Absence of Proper Definition
b. Heavy Workload and Varying Nature of Work
c. Absence of Criminal sanctions
d. Absence of Independent Authority to Investigate Cases
e. Absence of Programmes to Review the Results
f. Absence of People’s Confidence and Co-operation

Conclusion

Chapter VI – JUDICIAL CONTROL OF POLICE IN INDIA

Judicial Control- Justification

Judicial Approach
A. Punitive Approach
B. Compensatory Approach
C. Preventive Approach

Effectiveness of Judicial Control
Where the Court Fails

Conclusion
Chapter VII – CONTROL OF POLICE – A COMPARATIVE OVER VIEW 267-328

Introduction

Judicial Control
a. Judicial Review of Law Enforcement Decisions
b. Exclusionary Rule

Drawbacks
c. Due Process
d. Judge’s Rules

How Effective

Statutory Control

a. Police and Criminal Evidence Act, 1984 Redress for Police Abuse of Power
   i. Exclusion of Evidence
   ii. Tortious Remedies
      a. False Imprisonment
      b. Malicious Prosecution
      c. Trespass
      d. Assault
   iii. Police Complaints and Disciplinary Proceedings

Effectiveness

b. Bill of Rights
   i. Search & Seizure
   ii. Arrest
   iii. Interrogation & Confession
   iv. Right to Counsel and Bail

Weakness

Position in France
a. Nullity of Evidence
b. Search & Seizure
c. Interrogation
d. Violation of the Rights of the Accused Chapter VIII - PROBLEMS IN LAW ENFORCEMENT  329-356

Problems and Panaceas

A. Institutional Problems
   i. The Police Culture
   ii. Poor Selection and Training
   iii. Strength and Service Conditions
   iv. Out-dated Police Structure
   v. Work Load
   vi. Lack of Adequate Staff
   vii. Lack of Infrastructure Facilities viii. Job Stress
   ix. Lack of Forensic Facilities & Scientific Investigation
   x. Lack of Continuing Education & Assessment
   xi. Unnecessary Interference for Top Order xii. Lack of Professionalism xiii. Corruption in Police xiv. Malpractices in Investigation

B. Social Problems
   i. Strained Relationship with the Public
   ii. Lack of co-operation from the Public in the Investigation
   iii. Political Interference

C. Legal Problems
   i. Criminal Procedure Code and the Police
   ii. Evidence Act
   iii. Lack of Legal Knowledge
   iv. Hostility of Witness

Conclusion