CONTENTS

Chapter-1 - Introduction 1-14
- Mercantile Capitalism and New Trade Practices 7
- On the Source Materials 8

Chapter-2 - Historical Settings 15-36
- Distribution of the Brahmin settlements 17
- Political Formations in Kolathunadu-Physical Base 19
- Land Holdings and the Socio-political Reconfigurations 21
- The Royal Family 24
- Implications of Overseas Trade 29
- Pepper in European Trade 33

Chapter-3 - Proliferation in the Indigenous Politics 37-59
- The Processes of Disintegration of the Kolathunadu Royal Family 40
- Lesser Rajas and Petty Chieftains 44
- Waning of the ‘Greater Kolathunadu’ 55

Chapter 4 - The Onset and Consolidation of the East India Company in Kolathunadu 61-133
- The Establishment of the Tellicherry Factory 62
- The Period of Local Crisis 64
- Colonial Rivalries and its Repercussion in Native Power Structure 70
- The Canarese Invasions and aftermath 87
- Disintegration of native power structure 107
- Predominance of the English Company 131
Chapter-V - The Historical Process of native Political Earthquakes 135-176
• Circumstances leading to Mysorean Invasions 137
• Hyder Ali in Kolathunadu 140
• Native Resistance 145
• First Anglo-Mysorean war 147
• Kolathunadu under Mysorean Rule 149
• Second Anglo-Mysorean War 152
• Kolathunadu under the English Company’s Influence 154
• Tipu Sultan and Kolathunadu Affairs 160
• Third Anglo-Mysorean war 170
• Implication of Mysorean Interregnum 175

Chapter-VI - From Sovereignty to Landlordism 177-234
• Legitimisation of Political Sovereignty 179
• Subjugation of the native Political Agents 188
• Destruction of Feudal Privileges 193
• Monopolising the pepper trade 198
• Revenue Administration 200
• Rajas as Landlords 209
• Malabar under Madras Presidency 222
• Last Phases of Resistance 224

Chapter-VII- Conclusion 235-242

Appendix 243-246

Bibliography 247-258