CONTENTS

Chapter I : Introduction 1-28

(i) The Making of Gloria Naylor the Writer

(ii) Socio-Political Background of African-American Society

(iii) Feminism and Protest in Black Women’s Literature

Chapter II : The Women of Brewster Place 29-66

(i) Racial and Sexual Oppression: Black Women’s Survival in the Society

(ii) Female Heroism: Gender Solidarity through Women Bonding

(iii) Brewster Place: A symbol of Dehumanization and Struggle

Chapter III : Linden Hills 67-105

(i) Willa and Her Will Power: Her Journey towards Identity and Self-dignity

(ii) Violence and Exile: Linden Hills as a story of resistance and rebirth

(iii) Racism and Politics: Willa’s Protest against male dominated society
Chapter IV :  Mama Day

(i) Female Bonding: Black Women’s New Definition of Sexuality

(ii) Mama Day and George: Representing Motherhood, Power and Magic

(iii) Mama Day: Borrowings from Shakespeare’s The Tempest

Chapter V :  Bailey’s Cafe

(i) Issues of Race, Class and Sex: A Psychological Study of Bailey and Nadine

(ii) Bailey’s Cafe: A unique combination of Suffering and Redemption

(iii) Respect and Recovery as the theme of the novel

Chapter VI :  The Men of Brewster Place

(i) The Men of Brewster Place: Representative Novel of Black Menfolk

(ii) Search for Identity: Role of Black men towards Family and Community

(iii) Portrayal of Powerlessness and Individualism through African-American men

Chapter VII : Conclusion

Select Bibliography