ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator acknowledges with pleasure his gratitude and indebtedness to all those who helped to complete this manuscript. First and foremost he is immensely grateful to the God Almighty for the abundant blessing showered on him for the successful completion of this study.

The investigator considers it as a great honour & privilege to be guided by Dr.Razeena Padmam, Director, School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam. He offers his sincere gratitude to Dr.Razeena Padmam for the constant support, wishful encouragement, constructive guidance and patience which helped in conceptualizing and completing this study.

Anganwadi Supervisors, Anganwadi Workers, Medical Officer in charge of Kadakampally Primary Health Centre, Junior Public Heath Nurses & Ward Counsellors of Kadakampally Panchayath are remembered with gratitude for their valuable help in conducting this study. The patients with dementia and their caregivers deserve special thanks for their whole hearted co-operation in the conduct of this study. The investigator showers heartfelt thanks to Dr.Shaji. K.S., Associate professor in Psychiatry, Govt. Medical College, Thrissur, Dr.Anil Kumar, Psychiatrist and all the experts in different fields who have spent their valuable time for the smooth conduct & completion of this study.

The library staff of School of Behavioural Science, Mahatma Gandhi University, Government Medical College, Kottayam, NIMHANS, Bangalore, Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences & Amala Institute of Medical Sciences are remembered gratefully for their help in retrieving the information needed in the conduct of this study.
Mrs. Indira Varma, Varma’s Academy, Thrissur are appreciated for language translation and editing of this Research Work. Special thanks are also due to Mrs. Sreekala C. R. for helping in preparing this manuscript. He is deeply indebted to his family who made this task easy through their unconditional love, patience, endurance & concern. The investigator expresses his thanks to all those who directly or indirectly helped him in the development of this Research Work.

Rajee Reghunath