ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I am deeply obliged to Dr. T.V Muralivallabhan, Reader in Economics, SVR NSS College, Vazhoor, Kottayam, for his valuable guidance in completing this study in time. His guidance and help have indeed been very great and I have benefited by it at every stage of the preparation of this thesis.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. A. P Thomas, Professor and former Director, in the School of Environmental Sciences for his wholehearted support for completing this study. I am also obliged to Dr. E.V Ramasamy, the Director of School of Environmental Sciences, for his timely advice and support. I am also thankful to the Librarian and all staff members in the office of the School of Environmental Sciences for their immense help.

I am also obliged to Sri V.O Schummar, Retired Professor and Head of the Department of English, St. Thomas College, Pala, Kottayam for his valuable suggestions and corrections.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Joy Jacob, Reader and Head, Post Graduate Department of Statistics, St. Thomas College, Pala, for his valuable corrections.
