ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I gratefully acknowledge the help, guidance and encouragement given by a number of people and institutions.

I am particularly grateful to my guide Dr. P. J. Cherian, whose guidance and encouragement have been invaluable.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Prof. P.M. Varkey, former Head of the Department of History, and to Prof. Annie M. Thomas, present Head of the Department of History, Union Christian College, Aluva, for their great help.

Several persons helped me in developing my thinking in the area of my study. In this regard I express my sincere thanks to Acharya Narendra Bhooshan, Dr. P. K. Koshy, Prof. George Joseph and Prof. G. Ayrukuzhi for their help and suggestions at various levels of this study. My gratitude is also to Dr. M. R. Raghava Varier who read the church inscriptions.

I am indebted to Shri George Mathai, formerly Associate Fellow at the Institute of Management in Government, Thiruvananthapuram and to Dr. Alex Mathew of the History Department of Marthoma College, Thiruvalla for their valuable help. I am grateful to Shri Paul Manalil for the useful material made available to me.

I am also thankful to numerous knowledgeable persons whom I had interviewed for gathering information on the past and present of Chengannur.

I am grateful to the Principals and the Management of St. Thomas College, Kozhencherry for facilitating in every possible way my higher studies. Heartfelt thanks to all the teachers and students of St. Thomas College, Kozhencherry who seldom failed to give me the moral support required while pursuing the study.
My thanks are to the staff of the office and library of the Kerala Council of Historical Research. I owe my sincere gratitude to all the members of the faculty, office and library staff of the Union Christian College, Aluva, my centre of research, for their immense help and encouragement.

My gratitude is also to the Mahatma Gandhi University, University Grants Commission and the Government of Kerala for facilitating my study which was undertaken under the Faculty Improvement Programme.

I thank everyone who participated in the printing and related works.

A word of special thanks to our Papa Shri K. V. Samuel and my husband Shri Moncy Samuel, my son Praveen Sam Moncy, my brother Joseph Cherian and sisters Leelamma and Lizy, my deceased parents, my niece and nephews Saji, Dr. Sanju, Anju, Libi, Bibi and Bibin, and Febu for many things done during my study period. I specially remember the love and care of Anoop, my brother’s son who is no more.

My gratitude is profound for the encouragement and prayers for me by Rt.Rev. Dr. Zacharias Mar Theophilus, Suffragon Metropolitan of Marthoma Sabha which stood me in good stead all along.

Thanks to God Almighty for showering His Grace on me throughout.
