ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Researcher wants to express his deep sense of gratitude to the Periyar University for having given him an opportunity to enter into the field of Research. Although this dissertation is for partial fulfilment of the Degree of Master of Philosophy of Commerce, it is a rare privilege given by the University to the students in the process of higher intellectual attainments.

I am unable to find suitable words to express my deep gratitude to my guide, Dr. S. Shanmugasundaram, M.Com., Ph.D., Professor and Head of Department of Commerce, Periyar University, Salem - 636 011, who has enabled me in designing the dissertation and helped me in all possible ways in the successful completion of the dissertation. I have no hesitation in recording that but for his kind guidance, I would never have been able to complete the work.

As regards courteous services rendered by the Presidents, Vice Presidents, Secretaries, Managing Committee members and members of the three sample Employees' Co-operative Stores viz., the Anna Transport Corporation Employees' Co-operative Stores, the Swarnapuri Consumers' Co-operative Stores, the Steel Plant Employees' Co-operative Stores, Mohan Nagar stationed in Salem were worth mentioning for they were exceptionally cordial, co-operative and informative. In particular, I am grateful to Thiru. V. Venugopal, Vice President of the Steel Plant Employees' Co-operative Stores, and Thiru. T.R. Lakshmi Narayanan, Account Department, SAIL Salem, who, immediately accepted to give all information and statistical data, that I required for the Research Work. If, it will be worthy to mention about Thiru. S. Arangawamy, President, The Swarnapuri Consumers' Co-operative Stores, Salem, who, asked his members of staff to extend all help, whatever I needed. My grateful thanks is to him.
Next, I am thankful to Thiru. R.Sankara Narayanan, M.Com., B.L., who helped me a lot, to bring out the dissertation in a beautiful shape. Finally, I thank all my well-wishers, patrons and friends for their initiation and interest.

SALEM

M.DEVARAJAN