Acknowledgement

The task of conducting a study is not an easy one. There are many people involved who contribute to the bulk of the material which ultimately has to be collated by the author. I take upon this opportunity to express my utmost gratitude and sincere thanks to all the people without whose best wishes and help my research work would not have seen the light of the day.

At the very outset I extend my profound gratitude to my revered guide, Prof. Gayatree Goswamee, Former Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University who gave me an opportunity and the platform to pursue my research work. It is only because of her persistent encouragement, sustained guidance and invaluable inputs from her vast ocean of experience which lead to completion of my thesis.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Professor Kaberi Saha, Head, department of Education, Gauhati University for her kind cooperation and valuable advice.

My sincerest thanks go to all the faculty members of the Department of Education, Gauhati University for their help, suggestions and kind cooperation during my research study.
My gratefulness goes to my colleagues from Kaliabor College, Pandu College and Dispur College who stood by me during the course of the study and dripped in with valuable suggestions from time to time.

The Principals along with the teaching and other supporting staff of the schools visited for the study deserves special mention for making time out of their tight schedules to cooperate with me whenever I needed their help.

My sincerest thanks goes to the children, parents, ‘mukhias’ and all the inhabitants of the slums that I had visited without whom this study would not have seen the light of the day.

I am grateful to all the officials and staff of the various libraries I had visited during the course of my study.

My heartfelt thanks to the officials and staffs of G.M.C, G.M.D.A., Directorate of Elementary Education and the Department of Economics and Statistics for providing me the secondary data needed for this study.

My family deserves special mention for the important role it had played in this endeavour. My parents, brothers, sister-in-law, my little niece ‘Dakshita’ and all the family members and relatives stood as a source of inspiration from time to time. My wife Ranjeeta Kakoti Roychoudhury gave her full support and help whenever need was felt.
My sincerest thanks go to my friends, students, Members of ‘SpacebarZ’ and ‘Abhyutthanam’ who were always eager to help me whenever I needed. My special thanks go to my friends Partha Pratim Chowdhury, Hrishikesh Bhagawati and my student Sivani Dutta.

I would also like to take the opportunity to thank all those persons whose names may have not found mention among the pages of this study but who nonetheless have contributed in whatever small way they could to make this study a fruitful one.

Place: Guwahati

Date: (Amit Kumar Roychoudhury)