ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The very word, ‘Acknowledgement’ tolls like a bell and I become apprehensive about ever being able to acknowledge, in the true sense of the term, the debt of gratitude that I owe to all those people who, in one way or the other, helped me, supported me, and inspired me. Nevertheless, I shall make a sincere, nay sincerest effort, to clad my feelings for them in words, the only option at my disposal.

At the very outset I, without mincing words, express my deep sense of indebtedness to revered Dr. J.S. Dhillon, Principal, Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar, under whose expert guidance and supervision I could muster up courage enough to take up this onerous assignment and accomplish it. I must put it on record that without his active co-operation and readily available advice it would have been well-nigh impossible for this work to have seen the light of day.

It is with a sense of pride that I express my gratefulness to Dr. Mrs. Surinder Pal Kaur Dhillon Dean, Faculty of Education, G.N.D. University, Amritsar and Principal, Khalsa College of Education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar because I found in her a kindred soul and hence have never felt shy in discussing my doubts with her. I must acknowledge that she has always been forthright in clearing my doubts and thus has proved to be of immense help to me in completing the task in hand.

I am also thankful to Dr. Kulwinder Singh and Dr. T.S. Sodhi (Retd.) from the Deptt. of Education, Punjabi University, Patiala for their valuable suggestions. Dr. B.M. Sharma, Principal S.G.T.B. college of Education Khankot deserves my special thanks for being considerate enough to have gone an extra mile in helping me in my assignment.

I am also thankful to all those colleagues from other colleges who unhesitatingly provided the requisite data.

My sincerest thanks to the Librarians of G.N.D.U. Amritsar, Punjabi University, Patiala and Punjab University, Chandigarh for providing me the relevant material.

With a sense of satisfaction and hence elation I recognize the help and encouragement extended to me by my own colleagues and I thank them from the core of my heart.
M/S Subhash Computers, Kabir Park, G.N.D.U Amritsar also deserve my thanks for making it possible for the thesis to be in my hands at the right time in its proper shape.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest possible sense of gratitude to esteemed S. Harjinder Singh Ji, Chairman, Saint Kabir College of Education, Kauli (Patiala) for allowing me to do Ph.D. Words, fail me at the moment for all the help, motivation and above all the freedom that he granted to me at this crucial juncture in my career. But for his kind gesture, all this could not have ever been possible and for this, rarest of the rare, gesture of goodwill, I shall ever remain loyal and grateful to him.

Last but not the least in love, as the saying goes, I, hereby, express my sincere thanks to the members of my family ---- my spouse, Mr. B.L. Sharma, my beloved daughter, Shinee and my dear son, Rohit---- for being of immense help to me in different ways to see that my mission is accomplished.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not record my deepest sense of gratitude to my sister and my brother in law- Prof. Mrs. Raman Sharma, Head (Retd.) Deptt. of English, Shahzadanand College for Girls, Maqbool Road, Amritsar and Prof. S.R. Sharma, Head (Retd.), Post-graduate Deptt. of English, D.A.V. College, Amritsar- for their active help and moral support.

Dr. (Mrs.) Shashi Kiran
