ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It has been a matter of immense pride and privilege for me to avail of the opportunity of working under the able supervision of Dr. Om Parkash, Prof., Department of Mathematics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. With a deep sense of gratitude, I hereby place on record my earnest feelings of gratefulness for my worthy supervisor Dr. Om Parkash for having bestowed upon me valuable advice, utmost cooperation and boundless encouragement in the pursuit of my cherished goal of attaining my doctorate.

I owe my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Charanjit Singh, Head and all the faculty members, Department of Mathematics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for their consistent motivation and help rendered to me to accomplish this task. I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my thankfulness to Dr. Gurdeep Singh, Principal and Mr. Nand Kishore Singla, Head, Department of Mathematics, Rayat and Bahra Institute of Engineering and Biotechnology, Mohali for their unflagging encouragement and orientation towards research.

Further, I express fervent feelings of thankfulness to the teachers of the Department of Statistics, Maharashi Dayanand University, Rohtak and the Department of Mathematics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for their unstinted cooperation and fruitful discussions during the course of my studies as I do believe that gratitude is not only the memory but the homage of the heart rendered to those who offered me valuable suggestions for achieving my avowed objective.

I am also beholden to my wife Anila and kids Rayan and Fanny for providing me the requisite atmosphere for carrying on this project.
