Acknowledgement.

Several persons and institutions have helped me to carry out my work. I would like to extend thanks to all of them.

I am deeply grateful to my guide Dr. V.K. Kshire, Retired Professor and former Dean, Faculty of Moral and Social Sciences, Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune without whose help the thesis would not have come into shape. He helped me with his keen and careful comments and valuable suggestions.

My sincere thanks are due also to the entire faculty of the Department of Political Science, Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune for their encouragement and co-operation. Particularly, I am indebted to my teacher Mr. Manik Sonawane, Head, Department of Politics, Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune for his constant encouragement.

I am deeply grateful to my M. Phil guide Dr. Yashwant Sumant of the Department of Politics & Public Administration, University of Pune for his encouraging comment and valuable suggestion to get it shaped.

I am grateful to Dr. Sanjot Apte, Co-ordinator of P.G. course, Department of Political Science of S.P. College, Pune for her encouragement in my research work.

My study would not have been possible without the co-operation of the librarians and staff members of different libraries from where I collected the data. I thank the following institutions and their staff members namely, Tilak Maharashtra University Library, Pune, Jaykar Library, University of Pune, Servant of India Society's Dr. D.R. Gadgil Library, Pune, the Library of Assam Legislative Assembly, Dispur, Gauhati University Library,
Gauhati, Nabajyoti College Library, Kalgachia, Nobuday Library, Kalgachia.

My Sincere thanks are to my father M. Mozammel Hussain, Retired Principal of Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia and Dr. Monirul Hussain, Professor of the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University, Guwahati for their careful comments and valuable suggestions.

I am also thankful to my colleague lecturers of the department of Political Science of the Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia for the encouragement given to me from time to time. I am also thankful to the hon’ble Principal, i/c, Omar Ali Ahmed for giving me valuable suggestions and inspiration to carry on the research work. The members of the teaching and non-teaching staff of Nabajyoti College, Kalgachia deserve my thanks and gratitude for the suggestions and encouragement they have given to me while doing the research.
I am grateful to Ismail Hussain, Secretary, Al-Ameen Charitable Fund Trust, Kalgachia, Assam, Dider Hussain, Principal, All-Ameen Junior College, Bamuntari, a couple of officers from the Government of Assam and some of the social activists working among the Muslims communities for interaction with them on the subject of my thesis. Their insights, suggestions and the information which they provided, helped me a lot to develop my understanding of the subject.

I am grateful to my mother Mrs. Firoza Hussain, grandmother (Nani) Aunty Anjuara Khanam, brother Noor Alom and Atiqul Alom, brother-in-law Abu Sayed Siddique, Lecturer of B.H. College, Howly, Sister Shamsun Nehar, Sister-in-law Shelinoor Akhtar, nephew Tanbir, niece Asha, Cousin Iqbal, Saddam, Yasmin, Abdur Rouf, Babul, Bukul brother-in-law Arzoo and relatives who constantly shower their love and care and supported me with great encouragement. I am grateful to my late uncle

I would like to thank my friends who constantly encouraged and supported me through their help and cooperation. They are Gitumani, Vivek, Yogiraj, Mahesh, Vishnu, Sandeep, Hanumant, Aminul, Golam Jaman, Thohe, Nasir, Sangaratna, Ismail, Aziz, Saif, Shahid and salman.

Last but not the least, my sincere thanks to Abul Kalm Azad of Al-Ameen Computer Centre, Kalgachia, Tuzammel Hussain of Al-Ameen Offset, Kalgachia and Asir Uddin Ahmed of Sonali Offset, Kagachia who typed certain parts of this work.

Md. Fakhrul Alom