ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my mento Dr. S. O. Khanna, Director Institute of Information and Communication Technology (IICT), Indus University, Ahmedabad. He introduced me to the arena of image and computer vision in the field of agriculture with a distinguished approach for a noble cause. I would be ever indebted for his righteous and ever enthusiastic approach in my research work. His patience, motivation, enthusiasm, immense knowledge and constant support by inculcating within me the productive and result oriented ideas led to successful completion of my doctoral programme.

I cannot forget the tutelage of DRC committee members Dr. C.K. Kumbharana and Dr. P.V.Virpariya for their rudimental support and valuable advice during the tenure of my work. Their constructive criticism, valuable advice and continuous boosting by Dean Dr. Ajit Shukla during my six monthly presentations made this journey more joyous for me.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge Charutar Vidya Mandal and G H Patel Institute of Engineering and Technology for their support without that this endeavour was not possible. Dr. C. L. Patel Sir Chairman CVM deserve my sincere expression of thanks. As an elderly Figure you always encouraged teaching and research. Sir, has always being a constant motivator and idol for young budding faculties in their journey of teaching and research in particular. He is always being supportive of my career goals and has worked actively to provide me with the protected academic time to pursue those goals.

I would like to thank Dr. Nirmal Kumar J.I., Principal ISTAR for his unconditional support and motivation in person above all the extreme conditions in college. He always supported the staff for higher studies.

I owe my deepest gratitude towards my beloved husband Kavindra for his eternal support and understanding of my goals and aspirations. My heartfelt regards goes to my parents, in laws and family members for their unconditional love and support during my journey of research work.
My special words of thanks to the one who always guided me in the inevitable ups and downs by reminding me the true priorities of life. I doubt that I will be ever able to convey my appreciation fully, but I owe him my eternal gratitude. His blessings, constant support and strength helped me a lot to work for hours together tirelessly. Words always fall short when I thank my almighty for providing me platform to work upon for the society and my Alma matter. Thank you god for showering your blessings on me forever.
