ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a moment of gratification and pride to look back with a deep sense of contentment at the long travelled path, so as to be able to capture some of the finest moments and to be able to thank the infinite number of people who were with me from the beginning and also to them who joined me later for their overwhelming love, support and blessings that made this glorious day possible for me.

This daunting task would have been fruitless without the blessing, support, trust and motivation of My Parents. I humbly and heartily thank them for their strong belief in me, love and encouragement which made everything worthwhile.

I am extremely grateful to my guide, Dr. Akhilesh R. Upadhyay, who has a rich varied experience and always strives for better quality. He is a great mentor and philosopher. I consider it as a great privilege to work under his tutelage, as he motivated and shared his rich knowledge generously to a great extent.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Vinod Tibrewala, Chancellor, Dr. D.D. Agarwal, Vice-Chancellor and Prof. (Dr.) Ruchira Bhargav, Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Head, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Shri Jagdish Prasad Jhabarmal Tibrewala University, Vidyanagari, Jhunjhunu, Rajasthan for providing me all the necessary resources and facilities to carry out my research work.

I am also thankful to Mr. Lalit Bansod for providing me access to the excellent facilities at Computer Software Research Laboratory, COMSOLVE MEDIATECH PVT. LTD. I am indeed grateful to him for his timely support and keen interest in my research work and also for his regular support, valuable suggestions and his keen interest in my thesis work.

I am also deeply obliged to Dr. S. H. Patil and Dr. S. D. Joshi for their constructive criticism, suggestion and valuable feedbacks that boosted me for the betterment of my research work.

I am deeply delighted to show my oblige for Dr. Ashok Ghatol, Director KJ Educational Institutes, TCOER, Pune, Dr. Jaywant Sankpal, Principal, Universal College of Engineering, Pune, Dr. V. M. Wadhai, Principal, MIT College of Engineering, Pune, Dr. Kishor S. Kinage, Head, Dept of Information Technology, MIT College of Engineering, Pune for their timely and invaluable support during my research work.
I am also grateful to Prof. Pallavi Khare, Prof. Devendra Thakore, Prof. Prakash Devale, Prof. Sangram Gawali, Prof. Shounak Sugave, Prof. Y. R. Kulkarni, Mr. Mahesh Dakare for their constant help and support to carry out my research work.

I also express a deep gratitude to my mother-in-law, Smt. C. K. Dakare for her generous motivation, goodwill and endless support.

Besides these, there are few other people who have knowingly or unknowingly helped me in the successful completion of my thesis. I am indebted to them and would like to thank all of them for every ounce of their valuable efforts.

I would like to thank my wife, Vidya for her continuous untiring patience and sacrifice during the entire period of my research work. Without the loving support and understanding of my wife and daughters, Sayali and Samartha, I would have never succeeded in my endeavor.

My work is a humble tribute and offering to the great Almighty, whose blessings and presence nudged me to take the daunting task of taking an arduous journey of quenching my thirst from the unfathomable ocean of knowledge. As it is said “He who seeks, shall find”, I am a seeker and this research work is truly memorable milestone in my life and embodies my self-belief, hard work, sincere efforts and my zest for pursuing and seeking higher level of undiscovered knowledge.
