ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As a matter of eternal compliance, above all I would like to thank soulfully, the almightily God who bestowed me with his blessings to accomplish this study. It would not have been possible to write my doctoral thesis without the help and support of kind people around me, to only some of whom it is possible, give particular mention here.

With an overwhelming sense of legitimate pride and a genuine obligation which gives me immense pleasure and privilege to express my eternal gratitude and indebtedness to my learned and revered guide Prof. (Dr.) Naresh Kumar Vats, Chairman-Center for PG Legal Studies and Head-Center for IPR, Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur for his stewardship, judicious guidance, promote help and keen interest throughout the period of this study in a scientific and acuminous way. I shall always remain indebted to him for his supporting attitude and generosity bestowed on me. For this, I cannot thank him enough. I am forever grateful.

I am grateful to Prof. (Dr.) Rajpal Sharma, Director, Institute of Law, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra (former Dean and Chairman) for his valuable guidance and encouragement, despite his extremely busy schedule and Prof. (Dr.) Dalip Kumar, Dean Faculty of Law and Chairman, Department of Law, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his cognate attitude, skilful guidance and continued support during the course of my research. I shall fail in my duty if I do not express my sincere thanks to the teachers of the Department of Law, Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra for their valuable suggestions, which helped me immensely to accomplish this research work.

I would also like to thank Prof. Dr. Kamal Jeet Singh, Chairman, Department of Law, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their priceless views regarding this work.

I am very grateful to Dr. Sneh (Assistant Professor of Sociology, RKMV, Shimla) for her support and valuable suggestions in the completion of this study.

Let me add colour pleasure by mentioning the names of Mandeep, Ankit, Kavita, Ranjeeta, Surrender, Ashu, Anil Sharma and Kinu my fellow research scholars for boosting me throughout the study.
A special thanks to my sister Anika without her support and help it would not possible to complete my thesis on time. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my mother for all the sacrifices that she has made for me. She gave me emotional support in periods of mental stress and strain. Thank you with all my heart and soul.

I wish there could have been a more befitting way then words to express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved friend Rashmi (Assistant District Attorney, Kurukshetra) and her parents who have supported me and helped me throughout my research work. Rashmi, Thanks for being so.

I would also like to thank my mother-in-law and father-in-law for encouraging and supporting me throughout my studies. I would like to dedicate this thesis to my family, my husband Mr. Shriram V. Bhardwaj for their love, patience, and understanding he allowed me to spend most of the time on this thesis.

The acknowledgment would not be complete if I do not mention my beloved daughter Gauri, who bear the burden of my negligence due to my continuous engagement on this work of thesis. For the past four months, when I use to work up to mid-night she accepted me busy. I will remember her words throughout my life when she said, “Mumma, Ap Ab Kaam karoge laptop par, go to the room and study and write your Work, Gauri papa ke sath so jayegi”! I am very sorry my dear betu Gauri for this negligence.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank Mr. Ram Prasad and all ministerial staff of Department of Law and staff of Library Department of Law Institute, Institute of Law, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra and Indian Law Institute for their assistance rendered to locate the material to accomplish this research work.

I shall be failing in my duties if I don’t appreciate the best possible efforts of Mr. Tarun Grover for typing the present manuscript meticulously and effectively in a very short period and my gratitude to all the authors whose books, articles and write-up, I have studied and quoted in this research.

Needless to say errors and omissions are mine.
